

Hunt Club to Sponsor Colorful Steeplechase Saturday, Oct. 4, at Alger Farm

Bloomfield Hunt Dinner and Dance Will Follow Races

Autumn colors should have reached just the right hue in the hills at the Alger Farm Course, near Metamora, by Oct. 4—the date set for the Annual Hunt Races. The Races, which are known as one of the more colorful and spectacular events of the season, are being held at the Alger farm for the tenth successive year, and are being sponsored by the active hunt clubs of the district, the Bloomfield Open Hunt, Grosse Pointe Hunt, and Metamora Hunt.

Seven races have been scheduled, including three chases over brush and four over the flat. Featured will be the Frank J. Navin Memorial race, two miles over brush and also the colorful Estelle F. Grennan race, two and one half miles over brush. Horses are being brought in from Toledo, Toledo, and other nearby racing centers, to compete with local blood.

New this year, and proving very popular too, is the subscription dinner-dance on Saturday evening at the Alger farm. The affair will be staged in the dining room of the Alger farm. William Reeve Clark, chairman, who says that between 200 and 300 persons are expected at the party. Prior to the races in the afternoon, the Metamora Branches of the Grosse Pointe Hunt and the Bloomfield Open Hunt Clubs are to serve luncheon.

William Reeve Clark is general chairman of the whole event, and men serving on the racing committee include W. O. Briggs, Jr., E. S. Frisckorn, C. H. Shepherd, Frank W. Shull, W. R. Tracy, W. A. McHattie, R. E. Kaugh, K. K. Martin, and C. E. Cary.
