Furniture and Lamps
that make dreams come true—

WE presume you've wondered, as we used to, just what made a particular room take on the appearance that it was virtually dreamed first and then came true!

If you haven't figured it out, try it. You'll no doubt come to the conclusion we came to. That it's the mighty careful selection of the smaller pieces of furniture—together with the lamps—which have a great deal to do with it.

Come in and see the beautiful, quality-reflecting desks and tables and chairs and mirrors and magazine holders and lamps we are now showing. They are the kind that make dreams come true!
