Betrothal of Patricia Allen to J. E. Wilson, Jr., Revealed

Added to Birmingham's ranks of bride-elects is Patricia Mary Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Allen of Ridgedale avenue. The surprise announcement of her engagement to John E. Wilson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wilson, of Park street, was made Saturday afternoon at tea in the Allen's home.

The news was revealed via the tea table's centerpiece which consisted of two large silver hearts on which stood a miniature bride and groom just in front of heart-shaped pictures of the engaged couple. White satin streamers ran from the centerpiece to the edges of the table. Flowers were yellow and white, a color combination carried out in the little heart-shaped tea cakes which had the words "Patty and Johnny" written on them.

Patty wore a black crepe and red accessories. For the occasion, she had a corsage of gardenias. Receiving with her was her mother who wore black crepe and Mrs. Wilson who chose a dress of gray with gray accessories.

Presiding at the tea table throughout the afternoon were Mrs. E. L. Birdsong, Mrs. Clarence Davey, Mrs. Fred Faber, and Mrs. Nevel Allen. Assisting Patty was her sister, Phyllis, and a former classmate from DePaul University, Virginia Spinks, of Chicago, Ill.

Both of the young people are graduates of Baldwin High School and Patty received her degree

Miss Allen from DePaul University where she was affiliated with Alpha Gamma Delta sorority. John was graduated from Michigan State College where he was a member of Blue Key, Sigma Delta Chi, and Sigma Epsilon.

Allen-Denyes Rites Set for May 1st

Ruth Allen and Hugh Denyes had a very special reason for choosing Saturday, May 1, as their wedding-day, for it is also the 34th wedding anniversary for Hugh's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Denyes, of Merrill street. Ruth is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Glenn Allen, of Ann Street.

The ceremony will take place at 8 o'clock in the evening at the First Methodist Church and a reception will follow in the church parlors. Betty Allen is to be her sister's only attendant, and Hugh will have his brother, Bill, for his best man. Virgil D. Lunsford and Charles E. Allen will be ushers.

Ruth was honored at a surprise personal shower given by Mrs. Denyes and Mrs. Virgil Lunsford at Mrs. Denyes home last evening. Betty Allen and Mrs. Charles Allen have planned a miscellaneous shower for next Tuesday evening, April 21, and Mrs. Eugene Allen is honoring the bride elect at a kitchen shower on April 23.

Hewitt-Beh Vows Spoken in Detroit Saturday Morning

At a nuptial high mass in Gesu Church, Detroit, Mr. Agnes Hewitt and Joseph C. Beh, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Beh, Sr., repeated their marriage vows last Saturday morning. Father A. G. Mihm, of Pittsburgh, Pa., uncle of the bridegroom, performed the ceremony.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Hewitt, of Huntington Woods, wore the traditional white satin gown, with a V-neckline and shirred bodice, and a white knee-length veil with starched tulle. She carried a cascade of a large white orchid surrounded by sweet peas.

The maid of honor, Marjorie J. Franklin, and the three bridesmaids, Elynor D. Koels, Helen P. Lambie and Mrs. James King, of Howell, Mich., wore white tulle affairs, red-tinge-style dresses with long, light-tinged sleeves, and square necklines, and small bonnet style hats with short, flared brims. Each carried a bouquet of shattered red carnations.

The bride's mother, Mrs. John J. Hewitt, wore a short rose colored suit with light blue accessories. She wore an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Joseph C. Beh, Sr., wore a French blue dress of sheer material and navy blue accessories. She also wore an orchid.

Ralph L. Conklin was best man and the ushers were Robert J. Partlan, Wilbur Donaldson, David Johnson, and John Hewitt, Jr., brother of the bride.

A flowered wedding cake with a tiny bride and groom atop the pastry adorned the table at the wedding breakfast, which was held at the Wardell Hotel for the bridal party, immediate families of the couple and out-of-town guests who were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mihm and daughter, Mary Frances; Mrs. Celia Mihm, the bridegroom's grandmother, Miss Celia Mihm and Mr. and Mrs. Regis Donoghue, all of Detroit.

The wedding reception took place in the ballroom of the Wardell in the afternoon, with about 200 friends of the young couple present to extend congratulations. Mr. and Mrs. Beh, the bridegroom, were traveling the bride wore a beige frock, chocolate brown coat and hat, and beige accessories.

On their return the couple will reside on Pinehurst avenue in Detroit.
