

Annual Spring Horse Show at Bloomfield Open Hunt Club to be Saturday

Juniors Perform During Afternoon, Adults at Night

The 1942 "Horse Season" gets underway this week-end at the Bloomfield Hills Open Hunt Club with the annual spring horse show on Saturday, April 4. The juniors will take over for the afternoon classes, which include the pair class, music ride for juniors, horseman ship classes for boys and girls, horsemanship events, hunter rack, junior open jump, and the open jump performance, and the regular open jump performance.

A buffet supper will be served during intermission and the evening performances will begin at 8 p. m. The events will be given hunters, ladies' hunters, light weight hunters, middle and heavy weight hunters, hunter hack, open jump, and hunt teams.

Vera Ward

A dual announcement is being made this week by Mr. and Mrs. William W. Ward of Emmons avenue. They are revealing the engagement of their daughter, Vera, to Robert J. Quail, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Quail, of Ravine road; and the engagement and approaching marriage of another daughter, Dorothy G., to James J. Kelly, of Birmingham, son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Kelly, of Watertown, N. Y.

Dorothy and Jim are planning to be married on Saturday, May 2, at Holy Name Chapel. No date has been set for the wedding of Vera and Bob. Both of the latter are graduates of Baldwin High School. Dorothy also attended Baldwin High School and the University of Michigan. Jim attended New York University.

Coombs-Guilford Troth Revealed

Announcement is made of the engagement of Mary E. Coombs, daughter of Mrs. William A. Coombs, of Grosse Pointe, and the late Mr. Coombs, to Lieut. Charles F. Guilford, Fort Benning, Ga., son of Mrs. Frank S. Butz, Edison avenue, Detroit, and the late C. A. Guilford. The Coombs were formerly of Birmingham.

Mrs. Coombs attended Miami University where she was affiliated with Delta Delta Delta and studied at Arts and Crafts in Detroit. Lieut. Guilford is a graduate of Lehigh University and a member of Sigma Phi fraternity.

Dorothy Ward

MRS. KARL SEIFFERT, of Chesterfield drive, entertained in her home at a neighborhood luncheon yesterday. Her guests included Mrs. Thomas Spencer, Mrs. Maudie Verkes, Mrs. Ronald Freeland, Mrs. Theodore G. DeLang, Mrs. Roy Laning, Mrs. Norman W. Berry, Mrs. E. J. Batholomew, Mrs. Henry S. Schmidt, Mrs. J. E. Dickson, Mrs. Robert Davis, Mrs. Robert Sluazy, and Mrs. Harold Sims.

Friends Honoring Couple at Many Nuptial Parties

Pre-nuptial parties are in order for M. Agnes Hewitt and Joseph C. Beh, Jr., who are to be married Saturday, April 11, in Gesu Church, Detroit.

Ralph I. Conklin, who is to be Mr. Beh's best man, entertained about 20 of the bridegroom-elect's friends at a bachelor dinner at Charley Fisher's, last Saturday evening.

On the same day, the bride-elect was honored at a luncheon and linen shower given at the Detroit Golf Club by Elynor D. Koels, of Longfellow avenue, who is to be one of the bridesmaids at the wedding ceremony.

This evening Mrs. James King, another attendant, will entertain a group of the bride-to-be's friends at a kitchen shower in her home in Howell, Mich.

The spinster dinner is scheduled for Wednesday, April 8, and is to be held at the Abington Hotel in Detroit. Marjorie J. Franklin, of Woodlawn drive, who is to be maid of honor, and Helen P. Lambie, of Dearborn, who is the third bridesmaid, are to be co-hostesses of the affair.

The rehearsal dinner will take place Thursday, April 9, in the Huntington Woods home of the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Hewitt.

Pauline Richardson To Wed Don Noel on Saturday, April 11

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Simmons, of Hayes street, announce the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Pauline Richardson, to Don Noel, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Noel, of Greenwood avenue. The ceremony will take place on Saturday, April 11, at the Baptist Parsonage, and will be followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents. Both of the young people attended Baldwin High School.

Former Resident. Charles A. Hallett, Wed on March 5

Of much interest in Birmingham this week was the announcement made by Mrs. Oliver Theodore Hamilton of the marriage of her daughter, Frances Frazer, to Elnor Charles Amyot Hallett, former resident of Birmingham. Charles is the son of Mrs. Grace Hallett, of Tucson, Ariz., and G. E. A. Hallett. The marriage took place on March 5. Charles attended Baldwin High School and later the University of Arizona at Tucson, Ariz. He is now with the United States Naval Air Corps, of San Diego, Calif.
