

Annual Benefit for Starr Commonwealth Set for May 13

Sub Deb Club Plans U.S.O. Party, Saturday Evening

The Birmingham Sub Deb Club, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Mary Hartwick, English instructor at the high school, is planning a party for 20 men in the park May 2, out at the Springdale Park Club House. According to Virginia Johnstone, general chairman for the party, arrangements were made through the U. S. O. headquarters in Detroit to entertain a company of 20 soldiers, sailors, and marines.

Parents of the club members will provide transportation for the men between downtown headquarters and Birmingham. Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Johnstone and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Upper are two of the sets of parents who will provide transportation and also act as chaperons for the party. Other chaperons will be Mr. and Mrs. Erwin E. Darling, and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd E. Chapman.

Marjorie Lockrow is chairman of the food committee and is being assisted by Mary Jane Welch and Mildred Lowe. Entertainment chairman is Geraldine Updegraff, and working on her committee are Beverly Johnstone and Elizabeth Giles. The decoration committee consists of Ruth Wilson, chairman, Memorie Upper and Joan Herzberg. Shirley Warner is taking care of transportation.
