

Presbyterians' Drama Club Plans For Final Play

The Presbyterian Players have selected for their final play of the current season "The Valiant," long a favorite in these parts. Directed by F. W. Dobbins, the cast, which is now rehearsing, will consist of Don Plumstead as the condemned murderer Earl Potter, who will interpret the part of Warden Holt; William Spence as Father Daly; Nancy Plumstead as Josephine Paris and Howard Duesing as the jailer.

F. W. Niedenfuhr is in charge of stage sets and Mrs. C. S. Kinnison will handle properties, with Jack Fauch on the curtain and lighting. The date is April 17. The play will be preceded by an informal dinner backstage for all participants in this season's plays, their families and friends.

This portion of the evening, which bids fair to be a last one, is in charge of Charlotte Duesing with Mrs. L. W. Robertson and Mrs. Roland Weyer assisting. William Howling and Bob Fisher are handling the tickets for the dinner.

A brief musical program will be given by the A. Capella Choir of Baldwin High School, under the direction of Victor Ulrich, before the curtain rises on the play. The program will begin promptly at 8:15 in the gymnasium room of the church, reached by the South Woodward Avenue entrance. The public is invited.

Tall Stories

"When I was timbering in the Northwest it snowed so hard we had to let down with ropes to reach the tops of the trees," said Smith. "And the fog was so thick the fish lay themselves in the woods, but we soon remedied that by digging ditches in the fog and draining it back into the river."

"Well, when I was digging in the Panama Canal," retorted his friend, "it was so hot there one day, when my buddy went in swimming and dived off a 20-foot rock into the steam he forgot to take into consideration the evaporation, and when he was half way down the steam he forgot to take into consideration the evaporation, and when he was half way down the steam he forgot to take into consideration the evaporation."

Dr. Kemp Takes Organist Position

At the Easter services, the Rev. Charles H. Kemp, rector of Christ Church, announced to the congregation that Dr. W. Lloyd Kemp of this city had graciously accepted the request of the rector and vestry to carry on the work of Ellwood W. Hill, who has been granted a temporary leave of absence.

Dr. Kemp's love of music and his talent as an organist and choir director are well known in the city of Birmingham. For many years he has been a member and accompanist of the Orpheus Club in Detroit. From 1919 to 1923 he was organist and choir director at St. Mark's Methodist Church of Detroit. He was also organist and choir director during the summer months at the First Presbyterian Church in Detroit.

Dr. Kemp will begin his duties this coming Sunday, April 12.
