E. Long Lake People Plan Civilian Defense

A neighborhood civilian defense meeting was held Friday at the East Long Lake road district, northeast of Birmingham. Mrs. Zeiner Dowling took the initiative in calling the meeting, and 30 neighbors within a two-mile radius came to her home. Speakers included Judge H. Russel Holland, W. E. C. Hutwaine, Supervisor Perry A. Vaughan and Bradley Higby. The group figures that their homes are in a direct line between Detroit and the Yellow Truck factory in Pontiac, and that an anti-aircraft battery is timely. A motion picture study was shown. Those in need of wardens were appointed: Edward K. Pilcher, Fritz C. Hyde, Jr., Dr. Harry T. Wood and Glen E. Miller.

DeMolay Plans Big Defense Dance for Friday Evening

The Haszberger Chapter of DeMolay, Order of DeMolay, is sponsoring a DeMolay Defense Dance for Friday evening, April 10, in the Birmingham Community House.

The music will be supplied by Bill Gail and his orchestra from Detroit, who will fill the House with strains of swing and sweet from 9:30 until 1:00. The dance will be semi-formal.

All the proceeds of this affair will go into United States Defense Bonds in the name of the Haszberger Chapter, which will be a part of the Chapter's contribution to national defense and offense.

Vernon Wendorph, Master of the Chapter, is acting as the general chairman, James Andrew, Junior Counselor, is in full charge of the dance, and the committee, Larry Johnson handles the publicity, Gordon Cole the ticket sales, and the wife of Frank Boomer, will take care of the refreshments at the dance.

A special feature, and one new to Birmingham, will come in the form of four representatives from the Arthur Murray Dancing School in Detroit. During the intermission, they will give an exhibition of ballroom dancing, plain and fancy.

Active on the various committees are William Wrons, Calvin Estes, Lee Dalton, Allan Keogh, Francis Neidenfuer, Carl Thomas, Ralph Appel, William Valaska, David Standiford, Harry Lee, Donald Barnett, Jack Hollinger, William Hooper and Melvin Boomer.

Hardware Week April 16 to 25
National Hardware Week, which is being observed by the Birmingham hardware stores simultaneously with thousands of other hardware stores throughout the country during the ten-day period from April 16 to 25, is aimed to present the independent hardware dealer as an essential servant and supplier to his community. This annual event, the fifth held by the hardware industry, is sponsored by the National Retail Hardware Association with the co-operation of the Nation's leading wholesalers and manufacturers.

We urge all our neighbors to check over their essential hardware needs and with the observance of Hardware Week remind them that we are ready to serve their needs at any time," said Paul Furth, manager of Huston's.

Magnificent Possession

"HOME"

There's magic in the word! And there is today the beginning of a rediscovery of what it means to us all — for these threatening times make us realize genuine values. Thus it is most natural that into the minds and hearts of all there creeps the deep conviction that our homes are of surpassing importance. The provision of things of beauty for the home has long been a division of our service in which we have taken keen pleasure; thus contributing to that magnificent possession known as home!
