

Women in Service -- Volunteers Tell of Experiences in Selling Stamps

ennies, Thoroughly Legal Tender, Accepted Gladly

Federal laws to the contrary, a per bag bulging with pennies to the amount of some three or four bars, so still very much legal tender in the opinion of volunteers who sell war savings stamps and bonds in the lobby of two local theaters.

1000 Sweaters Made In Five Weeks Time

Exactly 1000 turtle neck sweaters, in addition to wristlets and gloves, are being packed this week at the Red Cross headquarters, in preparation to being sent to the United States Armed Forces. All this knitting was done in five weeks' time, too, by Oakland County's crack knitters—many of whom hail from Birmingham. When this huge order came in, Claire Gaskler, of Pontiac, county chairman, gathered in her best knitters and set them to work. Consequently it was an unceasing night during the hottest part of the summer, to see women hard at work they're getting, and from all reports they will need it, too, for it is expected that this fall will see another and a larger quota to be filled.
