

Cars for Police Getting Scarce

City Manager D. C. Egbert believed Wednesday that he had purchased two cars for the police department, one for this year and one for 1943, but he couldn't be sure of anything until the vehicles were actually here.

Monday night, he told the Commission that two sedans were ordered from the Commission for $400 on one trade-in, but Tuesday morning, when Egbert phoned a nearby dealer to close the deal, the cars were already gone.

He spent all day on the phone, calling some 15 dealers, finally getting one car from Center Line and another from a West Vemur dealer.

Monday night, Commissioner Wilner E. Bloody suggested that the matter of a City's new 2 1/2-ton truck, frozen in Pontiac for months, be given to Rep. George A. Dondero to see what he can do. Two old trucks have broken down and no parts are available for repair, Egbert reported.

Lt. Commander Hassberger Being Feted Before Leaving

Dr. Jack B. Hassberger, popular young Birmingham physician, who has recently been commissioned a lieutenant commander in the United States Navy, is being feted these days at many informal parties.

Last Saturday evening a large subscription party was given for him at the Dean Collins home. During the evening, which was taken up with original dramatic sketches, a buffet supper, etc., the guests spent all day on the phone, calling some 15 dealers, finally getting one car from Center Line and another from a West Vemur dealer.

Another outside party is planned for Saturday evening, at which Mr. and Mrs. Carson Bingham will host. After their supper, cooked over the outdoor grill, the group will make records on Milton Bear's recording machine. Guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Bears, the Paul Averills, Mr. and Mrs. Don S. Bell, the James Harrisons and Dr. Hassberger's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Hassberger.

Seek Whereabouts Of Two Men
Whereabouts of two men who failed to report to the Selective Service board here is sought by the board. It was announced this week.

One of the men is William Rogge or Robertson, who failed to report for induction. Mail sent to his last known address in Detroit came back with the notation "in the Navy," so the local board is checking with that department. Ordinarily an enlistment is reported here by the office.

Jimmie Benson, who also went by the name of Jimmie Goldsmith, is sought. A Negro, Benson last worked at 998 Brookwood court, failed to complete his questionnaire or report his change in address.

Football Practice To Start Sept. 1
The football season opens in Birmingham on Monday, Aug. 31, when Coach George Warner will distribute uniforms at 1 p. m. at Pierce Field. The first practice will be held at 9 a. m. on Sept. 1, to avoid the afternoon heat.

Regular classes do not start until Sept. 14, but the State Athletic Department permits earlier practice so that the boys have a longer time in which to toughen themselves physically.
