

Social Briefs

MRS. RALPH BRAIDWOOD, of Emmons, has just returned from a trip to Riley, Kan. where she visited her brother, Lieut. Douglas Craig. Her mother and brother came out from the West coast and they all met at the Fort.

MR. AND MRS. EDWARD R. CHAPMAN, of Quanton road, returned from a two-week vacation, spent with friends from Milwaukee, Wis., at Higgins lake, on Sunday. Then on Tuesday the Chapmans were off again, this time to get in some honest to goodness fishing at St. Clair Falls.

Returning this week are young campers from Bryn Afon, and its brother camp, Deer Horn. Among those coming home are Jean and Mary Grindley, Louise Thompson, Joan Patton, Mary and Barbara Dodds, Mary and Cynthia Booth, and Jane and Nancy Dodds. Included in boys' group are Victor Hadley, Steve Miller, Bob Grindley, Jr., and Peter Whitlaw.

MRS. HARRISON J. STRINGHAM and MRS. CLYDE HAGERMAN spent the week-end at Petoskey and Ludington.

MR. AND MRS. G. W. J. LINTON, of Lahser road, have as their guest this week, MRS. FAY MANTELL, of Miami, Fla.

Returning Tuesday from a 10-day camping trip at Traverse City, were MRS. RAYMOND and DOUG MOTT. The boys went up and returned with Doug's parents, AL and MRS. F. H. MOTT, Jr. and their other son, DICK, all of whom spent their vacation at Waterside Inn, Arcadia, Mich.

RONALD SMITH, of Humphrey street, and WALTER SIPPEL, of Highland Park, have just returned from a week's vacation in New York City.

MRS. ALVA D. SPRAGUE has returned from a visit with her mother, Mrs. M. Deane, at Miami, Fla., and her son, Cadet J. R. Sprague, at the Naval Air Station, Pensacola, Fla.

MRS. NORMAN CLARK returned last week from spending a few days with her husband, SGT. NORMAN CLARK at Jefferson Barracks, Mo. Mrs. Clark is the former Barbara Pratt.

JANE ANDER and GRACE ANDER, of 1/2 Mile road, were in New York City last week, staying at the Barbizon Place.

MR. AND MRS. I. J. SLUSSER left last week for Northern Michigan where they are vacationing at a lodge on Thunder Bay River.

ROGER CUMMINGS has returned from a weekend trip to Buffalo, where he visited friends.

ROSALIE CARROLL, of Bay City, returned to her home after having spent a week visiting her aunt, Mrs. G. H. Frederick, at the latter's home on Harmon avenue.

MRS. C. L. WINNINGHAM and her four young sons, Charles C., 11, John Howard, Anthony, and Timothy, are making preparations to move this week. By the first of September they plan to join Lt. Winningham, who is stationed at Camp Elmer. They will live near there, at Sumpter, S. C.

PEGGY CLARKE, daughter of Mrs. Stanton Clarke, of Detroit, formerly of Cranbrook road, is spending three weeks in California.

DR. AND MRS. NORMAN F. CLARKE have spent the past ten days on a boat trip and are expected home tomorrow.

MRS. C. H. SANDER, of Pilgrim road, is driving her daughter, PHYLLIS, down to Purdue University, where Phyllis is to enroll as a freshman. They are leaving today.

MISS DOROTHY OWENS, of Santa Barbara, Calif., formerly of Birmingham, is visiting old friends here this week. She is the houseguest of the E. V. FREMONTs, of Fairfax road.

CAROL MAYNARD was hostess last Friday evening to members of the Sigma Lambda Club at a meeting and steak roast at her home.

Last week the Marquis Club held a bike-bike, which ended up with a picnic supper and dance at the Cranbrook Senior Cabin. The August entertainment committee, headed by DICK CUSHING and JOHN KICE, was in charge of the party.

This afternoon MRS. LEWIS CLARK DUNN, of Goldeneye drive, will entertain members of the board and committee chairman of the Twentieth Century Club of Detroit. Around 28 will be present for a potluck luncheon, which will be preceded by the business meeting.

ALBERT PAULCONER, of Arkansas City, Kans., is here visiting his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm W. Welby, and

Suit Dresses

"Suit dresses" that look like two-piece suits will be popular this fall. Illusion is furthered by using red wool for the jacket part and black wool for the rest. Nailheads decorate buttons, button holes and collar. Hat is of ruffled felt.

Also attending the Bar Association Convention in Detroit this week, on Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Spruill, who also are originally from Kansas, are entertaining for Mr. Faulstich at a picnic at their home on Shirley drive.

MR. AND MRS. LEWIS G. WEGENER, of Chester street, celebrated their 23rd wedding anniversary on Tuesday, Aug. 25, at a dinner party in Grosze Pointe. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Green of Detroit.

JIM JUHL, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Lenard Juhl, of Beverly Hills, is leaving today for Purdue University where he is to be a freshman.

RALPH COREYLL, JR., and JACK HAMEL went East last week to join JIM CHANDLER, formerly of Birmingham, for a week's hike over the "Long Trail" in the Green Mountains of Vermont. After a short visit at Jim's home in New Britain, Conn., the boys will return to Birmingham, accompanied by Jim. They are expected this Saturday, Aug. 29.

A special drive to sell war bonds during the month of September will be launched at the Birmingham Theatre, Manager Howard C. Holdis has announced. It will be possible to buy a bond on the spot with no waiting, every evening of the week. A booth is now in the lobby where stamps are sold, he said. It is not necessary to purchase a ticket in order to reach it. A telephone "line" of acquaintances with the new service will be launched next week with the cooperation of the A.W.S.S. he added.

Spencer S. Howarth, sheriff of Oakland County, this week announced his candidacy for reelection. A Republican, he has served since 1915 and points to his record as justifying another term in office. During his regime, the department has been equipped with two-way radio and a complete record system established. A vote for Howarth is a vote for good government in his slogan.

Rev. W. C. Hamm Called to Detroit

The Rev. William C. Hamm, assistant rector at Christ Church Cranbrook since 1940, will soon have his own church.

St. Joseph's Episcopal Church in Detroit has called Mr. Hamm to succeed the Rev. William R. King.

Mr. Hamm

Ensign Weston Meyer Goes to Philadelphia

Ensign Weston Meyer received his commission in the United States Navy last week and left Tuesday evening, Aug. 25, for Philadelphia, Pa., where he will be stationed temporarily at the Bureau of Ships. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore F. W. Meyer, of Bloomfield Hills, Ensign Meyer applied for his commission last winter while a senior at Yale University. Since his graduation in June, he has been with his parents here awaiting his commission, which was awarded to him on the basis of his collegiate record.

S. Gordon Saunders Reported Improved

S. Gordon Saunders, of Orchard Ridge road, who was critically injured recently when an alcohol stove on his boat flared up, was reported in an improved condition, Wednesday. Saunders, a prominent automobile company official, is at Ford Hospital in Detroit.

Leon, Hair Dresser, Has New Partner

Leon de St. Nicholas, well-known hair dresser at Woodward and Maple, announces this week that he has a new partner, Nick, a skilled hair stylist formerly with "Phil and Charles of the Rig" in Detroit. He will come to Birmingham to be associated with Leon after Sept. 1. The new partnership will be known as the Leon & Nick French Salon.

AMERICANS have often been characterized as being "land-hungry" and "land-loving" and this characteristic of Americans is being illustrated by the

Come and Get It

Have You Met . . .

The Robert L. Summers with their two children, Robert, Jr., and Patricia Ann? They are living at 301 Forest avenue, having moved here from Port Huron, when Mr. Summers was made operating manager of the Montgomery Ward store in Royal Oak. The Summers like Birmingham very well—they find it an extremely friendly and nice place to live. As Mr. Summers put it, this is the 5th city in Michigan that they've lived in within the past few years, and from what they've seen they think they're going to like Birmingham about the best.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Pauly, of 220 Ravine road, they came here from Harrisburg, Pa., where Mr. Pauly, who is an architect, had worked on the court house with Lorne and Green for the past two years. For 10 years prior to that he was in New York, as chief designer for the R.A. building in radio city; at present he is associated with Swanson and Sarrinen in Birmingham. Mr. and Mrs. Pauly have two children, George, a Jr., who is nine, and Eugene, seven, both of whom will attend Adams School.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Irving Woolson who are living at 415 Argyle boulevard, Detroit recently? The Woolsons have always moved here from here from Port Huron, when Mr. Summers was made operating manager of the Montgomery Ward store in Royal Oak. The Summers like Birmingham very well—they find it an extremely friendly and nice place to live. As Mr. Summers put it, this is the 5th city in Michigan that they've lived in within the past few years, and from what they've seen they think they're going to like Birmingham about the best.

Lieut. and Mrs. George A. Ruelmling who have been making their home at 487 Madison avenue. Lieut. Ruelmling is stationed at Detroit with the Procurement Division of the Army Air Force on West Warren. Formerly they lived in North Attleboro, Mass., near Boston, and are now in radio city; at present he is associated with Swanson and Sarrinen in Birmingham. Mr. and Mrs. Pauly have two children, George, a

Some one seems that would furnish or equipment. Sell it with Pauly have two children, George, a

The World's News Seen Through THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR. An International Daily Newspaper. Published by THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE PUBLISHING SOCIETY, ONE NEWSPAPER BUILDING, BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS. It is Trustful—Constructive—Unbiased—Free from Sensationalism—Editorial Article Timely and Instructive. Features, Together with the Weekly Magazine Section, Make the Monitor an Ideal Newspaper for the Home. Price $12.00 Yearly, or $1.00 a Month. Saturday Issue, including Magazine Section, $1.50 a Year. Introductory Offer, 5 Saturday Issues 25 Cents. Obtainable at: Christian Science Reading Room, Chester and Willis Sts., Birmingham, Michigan.

FABRICS for FALL. Every New Fall Color! Plenty of Black! Rayons Woolens Velvets 69c to $3.95. Plans to make more attractive clothes for the fall and winter ahead . . . with these excellent quality fabrics. Consumer information is labeled to each type, to help you buy wisely, and most economically. Fine Wale. Crompton CORDUROY Yard . . . $1.39. Patterns 15c to 45c each. F. J. MULHOLLAND CO.

Mothers: Don't be late for these... School NEEDS. School will not open until September 14, this year, but we brought so we would be ready by the usual opening time. Consequently we are all ready with large stocks of back to school clothing for boys of all school ages from kindergarten through college. . . . Our stocks are complete now and you will be ahead if you shop early. Boys' Wool Sweaters "Lambkin" and "Kaynee" Long sleeves and sleeveless—slipover and zipper front. All shades of blue, brown, green and tan. Ideal for school wear. $1.95 to $3.95. BOYS' KAYNEE & MODEL Shirts Manly little shirts of fine quality workmanship and materials. Plain colors and patterns. Fresh, new stock just arrived for Fall. 79c to $1.50. Boys' Students' JACKETS Windproof, spotproof, shooferproof. Pre-shrunk, DuPont Zelan processed. All sizes. Slipover or zipper front. $1.95 to $4.95. Boys' Cooper Jockey Shirts & Shorts 15c. Junior Boys' Genuine Hockmeyer Corduroy Slacks With elastic waist in Browns, Blues, and grays in plain and mixed colors. Sizes 5 to 12. $3.50 and $3.75. Boys' Cotton Model Brand Flannel Shirts In bright colored plaids With button or zipper fronts. $1.95. Others $1.25. Boys' Anklets or Golf Hose Heavily knit for long wear. A wide variety of colors in stripes, plaids, and novelty weaves. Pair 39c. FLY with OAKLAND SQUADRON NO. 1. Apply: Naval Aviation Recruiting Station—106 E. Fifth St., Royal Oak. Daily from 10 a. m. to 9 p. m. F. J. MULHOLLAND CO. Men's and Boys' Departments.

ACTIVE WOMEN KEEP FIT With A Summer Spencer! Individually Designed Dorothy C. Grubb Registered Spencer Corsetiers Phone Bham 2683-M