WEED REMOVAL

(Continued from Page One) thus eliminate a problem that doubles, having single and mixed doubles, and runner-up of each event. A tournament of ten women, eighteen boys and under, girls' singles and boys' singles starting at the same time.

City Manager Egbert has arranged to have Alton E. Coffield, 280 Chestnut street, telephone 184, cut the weeds with a power mower, and Manager Egbert estimates that the average 50 by 140-ft. lot free from rubbish, can be cut in less than a half hour, no extra charge, therefore, can be given, but the citizen desiring weeds cut can fairly well estimate the approximate cost. Where several lots are together, the per lot cost is greatly lowered. So citizens are asked to telephone Mr. Coffield, or the information desk at City Hall, telephone 1230.

GARDENS

(Continued from Page One) of life was meant to fit into the war and world of civilization. Finally the depression came and all the Johnsons realized that the basic philosophy upon which they had built their lives had been completely destroyed.

As Johnny came to understand the real value of work, hard work, and knew the joy of accomplishment, his character grew and grew. One day after Pearl Harbor, Johnny discovered a truth that completed the change from boy to man. He was able to look into our country is to remain a free land, it is to contribute to the full extent of his ability.

Now let's look at the progress of our home-chose gardeners. We measure the progress by the learning of our Johnny's and Marys only through the results of their work, their interest and their determination to improve.

Bob Roensch, with a 91% is working hard on a flower garden. He has surpassed his goal in several instances. And Bob Warner has 90% for his efforts, with a very good consistency on the clay soil with which he contends.

David Wangberg has a well planned garden. His tomato plants are healthy and large! he has some beets and radishes and also some herbs. He is helping with the flower garden too. David received a score of 98%.

PARKER BAILEY Wrong Side They sat in the parlor at midnight, but her love was not to be lost. His reach was thirty-six inches, but hers was a forty-six waist.

B'ham, Hills Police Pick Up Speeders

Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills police continue to battle speeding motorists, with a number of arrests over the past week. The Hills department last Saturday picked up two motorists for excessive speeding on Woodward avenue. One was Richard M. Hayden, 29, Detroit, who was charged with driving recklessly at 75 miles-per-hour. He left $50 and will appear later this month before Justice of the Peace Arnold Hullett.

Manton Perry, 27, Hazel Park, paid $30 for driving 60 miles per hour. Officers Sgt. Stanley Kevner and Walter Sluiter made the arrests. Berthel Sommerville, 27, Pontiac, was picked up for driving under the influence of liquor. He paid $35 to Justice Hullett.

Donn McGinnis, 40, Detroit, was found early last Saturday morning in his car on Woodward avenue, near Low Pine road, asleep on the front seat, with the ignition switch on, radio playing, and the front wheel giving evidence of having struck some inanimate object. Officers Delmar Kitcher and John Kitcher brought him to the station, charged him with driving under the influence of liquor. McGinnis posted a $100 bond and will appear before Justice Hullett the latter part of the month, because the officer is on his vacation.

Bits of Birmingham

Members of Birmingham's Lutheran church must have gazed to the fabulous crystal ball this week, for Monday evening most of the congregation turned out to pull up weeds from the spacious lawn at their lovely new church on West Maple street. Monday night the City Commission, through Mr. Moody, suggested a city-wide campaign for weed removal, (see story in this issue), and the Lutheran, led by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stucky, of Golphurst subdivision, certainly "traced the devil" with those weeds.

Mink, this Wanderer has learned, is a most durable fur—not perishable, as was stated last week in this paper. The high cost of good mink might well lead one to think that it is naturally pretty delicate stuff, but, according to our source, Joe Dumas, a really wears like iron.

A lady, apprehensive she had passed her demotion, poked the street car conductor with her umbrella. "Is that the First National Bank?" she asked. "No, ma'am," replied the conductor, "them's my ribs."
