PARDEE GOING EAST
Capt. Clark E. Pardee spent a few days with his family last week en route from California to his new post in Hartford, Conn., where he will be stationed for two months.

HOME
Pvt. Leon Sawyer of Lockbourne Army Air Base at Columbus, Ohio, spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sawyer of Quorton road.

GOING BACK
Second Class Seaman Delbert F. Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross G. Adams, of Bingham road, left Saturday for Naval Reserve Aviation Base, Atlanta, Ga., after a 10-day leave.

TWO SONS IN SERVICE
The two sons of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Barrett, of Emmons street, left for the front in the 4888 Central Postal Directory, and Pfc. Warren J. Barrett are stationed many miles apart. Warren will graduate from high school at Tyler, Texas, in two weeks as a radio operator. John is stationed at an airplane factory in Paterson, N. J.

TRANSFERRED
Corp. Frederick Bradford Smith has been transferred from the 14th Armored Division at Camp Udon, Okla., to Officer Candidate School in the Armored Field Artillery at Fort Sill, Okla. Corp. Bradford is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick B. Smith of North Adams road.

JOHN K. ORMOND, JR.
CHAPEL HILL, N. C.—Cadet John K. Ormond, Jr., of 427 Waddington road, Birmingham, has completed the initial step in his training as a Naval Aviation cadet at the Navy Pre-Flight School here, and has been transferred to the Naval Reserve Aviation Base at Minneapolis, Minn., for primary flight instruction.

Cadet Ormond was one of 216 cadets to be graduated from the Chapel Hill school recently after three months of intensive training designed to prepare the cadets for combat flying in aircraft. In addition to the important physical toughening phase, the pre-flight instruction includes military drill, and instruction in Naval customs and basic ground school subjects.

Cadet Ormond must spend three months of primary flight instruction and then three months of advanced training. Before commencing his wings in the Navy's air service.

JOIN NAVY AIR CORPS
DETROIT, Dec. 4.—Two more Birmingham boys have been accepted in the Naval Reserve as flying cadets, it was announced here today. They are John G. Schwalbe, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Schwalbe, 333 Fierst street, and John L. MacDonald, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. William MacDonald, 179 Catalpa Drive. Both boys attend the Edwin high school.

They were placed on inactive duty after being sworn in at the Naval Aviation Cadet Selection Board in the Book Tower building at Detroit. They will be held in that status by the Navy until they are called to a class at the Navy's pre-flight school at the State University of Iowa.

DON'T FORGET "SPARS"
Women wishing to enlist in the SPARS—Women's Coast Guard Auxiliary—and begin training with the first "boot" class Dec. 15 at Iowa State Teachers College, Cedar Falls, Iowa, should visit the Coast Guard Recruiting Office for complete information. Those accepted for enlistment or commissions will be enrolled at the Office of Naval Officer Procurement in the Book Tower.

SPARS are identical with the WAVES and training will be held in schools established for the WAVES. Since 3,000 are needed for yeomen and storekeepers, stenography will be helpful to applicants, though not required.

GOING TO OCS
Corp. Harry D. Wise, Jr., will attend officer candidate school at
