IDEAS ABOUT GOD

Farewell to noticed the picture of a fine-looking young American. He was a young Ensign in the American Navy. Over the picture was the heading, "Dies for His Country."

The last words of Ensign Neal A. Scott, of Goldsboro, North Carolina.

To his attending shipmate, he entrusted his message to his father and mother: "To have you and mother for these twenty-four bears have been all that I could ask for an his dorld." This was this fine young effect of the picture of t

Not everything can be shouted from the housetops but enough is known to make every patriot thrill with pride at the accomplishments of this democracy, going into the greatest of all its wars.

WE ARE NOW ENTERING THE SECOND year of our country's participation in this war. This second year only to be a humandinger to give along the road to sictory. For our natiof, certainly never before has gone through so'rapid a shift from peace to all-out war activity.

innate striving for freedom cannot be extinguished.

The second is that liberty is truly won only when it is guarded by the same without some control of the same coincage, the same withinness to fight for it which first secured it.

These are true sentiments. We direct particular attention to the second. America needs to remember it. Norpesting it during the past twenty years may have helped bring us into a second world-wide war.

It goes without saying that in the future should the our international future with those nations who believe in liberty and paratrice it.
