At a beautiful afternoon ceremony in Christ Church Cranbrook on Monday, Helene Woolson, daughter of Mrs. Lionel M. Woolson, of Waddington road, and the late Capt. Woolson, repeated her marriage vows to Ensign Edward Caldwell Moore, son of Mrs. Samuel Moore, of St. Augustine, Fla. The Rev. Charles Cadigan officiated.

Given in marriage by her godfather, Col. Jesse G. Vincent, the bride wore a white faille gown fashioned with bonnet, fitted bodice with a row of small bows, and the V-neckline outlined with Brussels lace. The deep cuffs of the sleeves and the dainty head-dresses were also fashioned of the same lace. She carried a white prayer book tied with white orchids.

Joy Woolson was her sister's maid of honor. Miss M. J. Kearns was bridesmaid in gowns and small hats of aquamarine, and carrying arm bouquets of American beauty roses.

Keith Hoffman, of Chicago, was best man and Edwin M. Biersford and Joseph Louised were the ushers.

Mrs. Woolson chose a purple jersey dress trimmed in sequins and worn with a pale blue feather hat and orchids.

Mrs. Moore wore a black dress with black accessories and a corsage of orchids.

The reception was held in the church dining room before the couple left for a short honeymoon. The bride was attended in a tan marine wool suit worn with brown accessories.

Ensign Moore will leave shortly for the West Coast to report for duty.

The bride is a graduate of Miss Newman's School and the National College of Education. The bridegroom is a graduate of the Illinois Institute of Technology.

At a candlelight ceremony in the Lutheran Church, which was decorated with evergreens and soft blue lights, Edith Coral Roach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett E. Roach, of Pontiac, became the bride of Lt. Louis William Snyder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Snyder, of Harrisburg, Pa., Wednesday, Dec. 29, at 5:30, with the Rev. Theodore Waggoner officiating.

The bride, gowned in an aquamarine floor-length chiton with matching feather hat and shoulder-length veil, was given in marriage by her father. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

As matron of honor, Mrs. Paula Hartmann, of Detroit, wore a dark blue dress with feather hat and a bouquet of tallisun roses.

Suzanne Wood Reveals Betrothal To Paul D. Hogg

At ten in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert G. Wood, on Wembleton drive, Sunday afternoon, the friends learned of the engagement of Suzanne Wood to Paul D. Hogg, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Paul Hogg, of Beverly Hills, Cal. The wedding was held in white scrolls tied with red ribbons, which Suzanne handed to guests as they entered and also on the napkins printed with the names, "Suzanne and Pete" (as his friends call him).

Both honorees are attending the University of Michigan where Suzanne is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta, and Paul is a member of Beta Theta Pi and Delta Sigma Delta.

No immediate plans have been made for the wedding.

June Osborne, R. C. Thompson Are Wed Monday

June Osborne, daughter of Mrs. Satis Roy Osborne, of Royal Oak, and Ernest W. Osborne, of North lawn avenue, became the bride of Robert Colby Thompson, son of Lt. and Mrs. Paul A. Thompson, of Cranbrook road, Monday afternoon in Christ Church Cranbrook with the Rev. Charles H. Cadigan officiating.

The bride, given in marriage by her grandfather, Dr. Francis L. York, wore a soft white wool dress with peep-toe skirt and long fitted waist outlined in fringed ruffles. She wore a small hat with rows of fresh white carnations on it, and carried a small stiff bouquet of white carnations made to look like one big blossom.

Mrs. Andrew S. Watson, her sister's only attendant, wore a plain dress and hat in soft pink and carried pink carnations.

Charles Cannon, of Detroit, the bridegroom's roommate at Michigan State College, was best man.

Out of town guests were B. D. Roy, great-uncle of the bride, from Royal Oak, Mrs. J. C. Houston and her daughter, Phyllis, formerly of Birmingham, now of Ann Arbor, and Mrs. Horan K. Smith of Detroit.

After a brief honeymoon, the couple will be at home in East Lansing. The bridegroom, who is a member of the Marine Corps Reserve, will continue his studies at Michigan State until he is called up for officer's training.

Mary Ann Neff, one of Birmingham's few members of the Naval auxiliary, the WAVES, has arrived in Seattle for clerical work at a Naval station there, her mother, Mrs. Helen Wagner Neff, 501 Knox, headed Christmas Eve. Yeoman Neff completed her training at Stillwater, Okla., and spent a four-day leave with her mother, leaving Dec. 20.

Let's All Work for Victory ---- in '43

It's a new year filled with renewed hope for all the free fighting people of the world. You're helping to bring Victory about each week that you put 10¢ of your weekly earnings into War Bonds. And, though you're earning more, you're buying less and taking care of the things you own. Just as regularly as you buy War Bonds, make it a habit to save money to later buy all the things you're doing without now. The money you save will be used by your government . . . and it's ready for personal emergencies so that you don't have to cash in your War Bonds. Make saving a habit in '43!

Start the year off right by buying wisely . . . buy War Bonds . . . and saving regularly!
