pecially welcome at these meetings.
A series of fellowship dinners will be given at the First Methodist Church on the first six Thursday evenings of Lent.

PLAN

tracted more of the youth population as the student body increased, there also increased the number of graduates who did not go to college—but who were given training co-ordinated for that purpose; consequently, a great proportion of high school students who did or did not quit before graduation—all of whom did not go to college—found themselves with educational attainment that did not fit them for the everyday practical demands of the various non-professional fields they tried to enter.

THIS AND THAT

ham, on both the Board of Education and the City Commission. I have observed critics of these two bodies, and these critics elected to office, and ere long become complacent defenders of the practices they had condemned.

Air Conditioning Costs to Rise

All of us are in this War!
Thus far, in these two articles, I have dealt with the Atlantic Fleet; the entire victory, naturally, is "on the alert." There will be no Pearl Harbor! Norfolk!

CHARM

ganes. Individual attention will be given wherever possible to special problems, including problems of weight control. There is no age limit for either group.

What to Wear
As for costume, Mrs. Schaefer suggests a play-suit, preferably with shorts or slacks, or a cotton bathing suit, for the women. Mr. Newcomb prefers a sweater and slacks for the men's group.

Norfolk Naval Base Busy
A Trip to the U. S. Naval Base at Norfolk is impressive. This, the largest of Uncle Sam's supply bases, is humming with activity; new housing for untold thousands of military personnel is going up—faster than new months a portion of the area, covered with big timber, was denuded, stumps and other debris were scattered and prefabricated houses were built, to provide shelter for enough recruits to make a good sized city.
