

GIRL SCOUTS

'Girl Scouts Attention!'
Attention! Attention! Attention! For there is to be a day, Feb. 20, a week from tomorrow, which is to be devoted to the interested adults of all the communities in southern Michigan County. A "Girl Scouts for Defense Institute" will be held all day, Feb. 20, Friday, at the Birmingham Community House, Pontiac. Royal Oak, Farmington, and some other troops will be represented and will be the guests of our council. Your Eccentric next week will have the whole program. Come and find place for yourself and your daughter in this Girl Scout defense of...

We want to compliment the girls and leaders of troops 1, 2, and 17 who were so well represented at the Library Flag Ceremony on Saturday afternoon last. The girls in uniform made an impressive sight.

There is one form of defense work already well organized here in Birmingham which is of two-fold interest to scouts. Number 8 in the list is "Practice, Conservation." That is what the waste collector does. There was a quiz given to the girls and Mrs. Davis asks all Scouts to help and to remember that the paper and waste matter is not only valuable but news-print and more important to be collected. The other reason why it should be interested is a purely selfish one. The money obtained from the sale of this waste matter is turned over to the recreation fund. This means better playground equipment, the opening of the Barrment Pool—O. many things, depending on how much paper is collected.

Akron Couple Wed At Baptist Church

A charming informal wedding ceremony took place last Saturday afternoon at the First Baptist Church when Jean Bowman and Earl Brown, both of Akron, Ohio, exchanged their nuptial vows. The Rev. J. O. Nelson, pastor, read the services.

The bridal couple are friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bampton, of Wymblesboro, and came up here to be married. Mrs. Brown wore a jacket frock of sheer blue wool, a matching of-the-face hat and veil. Her flowers were white orchids and fuchsia. Mrs. Bampton, who was matron of honor, chose a shimmering frock of gold lame, a lily of the valley hat, and a corsage of white gardenias. Mr. Bampton was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Brown are staying at the Brook Cadillac in Detroit.

The Bamptons feted the newly-weds at dinner on Tuesday, and later invited a few more friends for an evening party.

YMCA Room Open To Women Now

Thursday night has been designated as women's night at the Y-M. C. A. room in the Community House, according to Robert Layne, secretary. There was a good attendance at the opening last Thursday evening, which was the first time that this room has been turned over to women. Any girls over high school age are eligible to drop in and join the fun this evening from 8 to 10 p.m. For further information call the Community House or The Eccentric.
