

Final Arrangements Completed for Holy Name Altar Society's Luncheon

Warm and Different Climes Attract Local Residents

Goings and comings to and from the warmer climes are multiplying the time of a great many Birmingham and Bloomfield folk this month. THE J. W. TAYLORS and their daughter, SALIVY, are down at Fort Lauderdale for quite a stay. Also at Fort Lauderdale since the end of March are MRS. BRUCE GREGORY and her daughter PERRI.

MRS. EDWARD S. McCOMBES left Sunday with her father, Robert W. Hamilton, of Detroit, for a vacation also at Fort Lauderdale.

Wednesday night for New York for several days.
MRS. C. E. USTICK, of Woodwood drive, is in Winter Park, Fla., with her mother, Mrs. Oscar E. Buehlinger. She will return to Birmingham in approximately two weeks.

Have You Met . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth C. Gorton who have just moved into their new colonial-type home at 1750 Villa road? The Gortons have liked it out here for a long time and finally just decided to build. They have two children, Tom who is six years old and Sue who is two and a half. Mr. Gorton is with DON, of San Diego, Calif., left the Excelsior Company in Detroit.

Affair to Be Held At Northwood Inn Tuesday Afternoon

Final arrangements have been completed for the Holy Name Altar Society's gala luncheon to be held at Northwood Inn next Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 17. Reservations have been liberally pouring in from Gross Pointe, Royal Oak, Bloomfield Hills, Birmingham, and Detroit, according to Mrs. Charles McGarity, secretary of the event.

Approximately 500 women are looking forward to this party, an annual event sponsored by the society in order to raise money to continue its work.

A few of those, from this area, who have made reservations are Mrs. Catherine Kern, Mrs. John H. Savage, Mrs. Richard R. Hindley, Mrs. Katherine Shelton, Mrs. John Smith, Mrs. Edward E. Robinson, and Mrs. James P. Partlan. Others who are planning to entertain a table at the affair are Mrs. James Couzens, Mrs. August Larson, Mrs. C. J. O'Connor, Mrs. Benjamin Hovel, Mrs. Frank J. McGinnis, Mrs. Frank Lase, Mrs. E. Clark McInerney and Mrs. F. E. O'Conroy.

The list continues with Mrs. Carl W. Sundberg, Mrs. L. Clayton Hill, Mrs. Clarence V. Gardiner, Mrs. Joseph C. Bell, Mrs. Harry B. Stillman, Mrs. John T. Bourke and Mrs. George E. Corryell.

Mrs. Daisley Gives Tea to Help Further Visiting Nurses Work

Mrs. Robert H. Daisley entertained at a tea in her home on Linden road last Friday afternoon for the Visiting Nurses Association and its members. The purpose of expanding the present program in Birmingham.

Guests at the tea included Mrs. Carl Grawn, of Detroit, Miss Watson, head of the Royal Oak Visiting Nurses Association, Mrs. J. Robert Mosby, Mrs. Cassius J. Miller, Mrs. C. G. Welch, Jr., Mrs. Agnes Brown, Mrs. Austin Harmon, Mrs. C. E. Dalton, Mrs. Julia K. Lally, and Mrs. T. Hollister Mabley.

Margaret Andre, Ronald H. Cooley To Wed at Shrine

Saturday, Feb. 14, St. Valentine's Day, is the date chosen by H. Margaret Andre, daughter of Anthony J. Andre, of Huntington Woods, and the late Mrs. Andre, for her marriage to Ronald H. Cooley, of Birmingham. Mr. Cooley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell S. Cooley, of Howell, Mich.

The wedding ceremony will be performed by Rev. Father Petras, in the chapel of the Shrine of the Little Flower at 11 o'clock. Mrs. Robert Stout, of Sault Ste. Marie, is to be matron of honor, while the best man will be Mr. Richard Jacoby, of Detroit.

Miss Andre is a graduate of Michigan State College and is affiliated with Alpha Gamma Delta sorority. Mr. Cooley is also a graduate of M. S. C. and was a member of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity.

After a ten-day wedding trip in Cleveland, the couple will reside at Rose Crest Apartments in Pontiac.

Elise M. Partlan feted the bride-elect with a linen shower, last Friday in her home on Woodland avenue. St. Valentine's Day mode and colors were carried out in the decorations. A light refreshment served by the hostess. As an added attraction, each guest had her future forecast by a fortune-teller.

Guests included Mrs. William Amity, of Ferndale, sister-in-law of the guest of honor, Mrs. Richard R. Slater and Rosemary Kirkpatrick, of Royal Oak; Mrs. Robert L. Partlan and Ruth Dahlberg, of Detroit; and from Birmingham, Mrs. William Bromberg, Mrs. Philip Carey, Florence Lawler, Phyllis Starr and Gay Carey.

Presbyterian Men Scheduled to Hear Anthony Weitzel

The Men's Club of the St. James Episcopal Church will meet for dinner at 7 p. m. in the church on Monday, Feb. 16. Guest speaker for the evening is Dr. Anthony Weitzel, Town Clerk of the Detroit Free Press.

Friday Town Hall

Ogden Nash, America's celebrated poet, editor and humorist is the speaker for the Detroit Town Hall, at the Cass Theatre, on Friday morning, Feb. 20 at 11 o'clock. Nash writes whole stories in funny verse, but full of "underlying pertinent truths told with flaming wit," which appear in all the leading American magazines. Mr. Nash arrived the hard way; many years were spent in the serious publishing business but now he is a world phenomenon. He supports himself by writing poetry.

Barnum School
Teachers of the Barnum School are giving their annual luncheon for members of the Parent-Teacher Association at one o'clock on Thursday, Feb. 19 at the school. The luncheon will be followed by a founder's day program, at which time Mrs. H. Ross will give a paper on the history of the National Parent-Teacher Association and of the Barnum Association. There also will be a short dramatization by junior high school students.

During the luncheon, the school rooms will be under self government. Junior high school pupils are to take care of the lower grades, and the older classes go on with their work just as if a teacher were present.

Pierce School
The next regular meeting of the Pierce Parent-Teacher Association will be held at the school on Thursday, February 12. This meeting has been designated as "Fathers' Night."

The entertainment feature of the evening will be "bingo." Please bring white elephants (wrapped) for prizes for these
