Wastepaper Group Tells New Slogan

A new slogan every week—so it seems anyway, and this week it's "Help Win the Scrap with Scrap" credit going to the wastepaper campaign group. Interesting and a bit unusual are the figures recited going to the wastepaper campaign group. Interesting and a bit unusual are the figures recited going to the wastepaper campaign group. "Dust off those book-shelves and really take a good look at the books you have alongside all the china bric-a-brac for decoration," is the suggestion made this week by Mrs. J. Rowland Quinn. Twice as many books could be donated to the Victory Book Campaign as already have been in Birmingham. The total figure at this time is 2,300. It has also been suggested each member or guest be required to bring a "book for the soldiers" in order to be admitted to your next club meeting or party.
