Plan, 'Country Fair' Friday and Saturday, evening of this week Goodwill Industries of Detroit is staging a giant benefit for the Red Cross in its building at 336 E. Congress. Detroit. It is to be known as a "Country Fair" and will partake of the nature of an indoor carnival and a country fair, all in one.

MRS. WALDORF T. KIRK entertained the members of her bridge club Monday at luncheon in her home on Glenhurst drive.

Mrs. Chapman

Mrs. Chapman will appear on the next part of the program in three numbers. They are Purcell's "The Lament" from Di-Paoli and "Aria" by Bach, "Gloria" by Giovanni, and "Aria" by the Bow Sicks. Lore Wardrop and Henry Segel will next be featured playing Bach's concerto for Oboe, Violin and two piano concertos in C Minor, which has been discovered recently. The conducting selected is to be the Bach's "Conata Weicher" by Bettrach Schellen. This is one of the secular cantatas which Bach wrote for a wedding ceremony and describes the arrival of spring and the pleasures to be young in nature.

Madeline Pease, who was her sister's only attendant, wore an afternoon frock fashioned of light blue silk jersey, made with a plain bodice and tiered skirt. Her accessories were navy blue and her corsage of pink rubrum lilies furnished a color contrast for her costume.
