

More emotion, unless they be coupled with intelligence, are just... Many of people become emotional; they begin to deny the necessity of...

THE S and THAT

Songs of the Road Fred W. L. Salmon, who used to live in Birmingham before he moved to Minneapolis, Minnesota, keeps in touch with local affairs...

At 45 "Highways are happy ways" At 55 "I'm but a stranger here, Heaven's in my home" At 65 "When the roll is called up under 'I'll be here"

The Conquest of America There is compensation in slavery administered by a master of one's own traditions...

When the rent-collector is a foreigner there arises a social maladjustment which will not only make the economic wrong...

And yet it is morally necessary for the foreigner to assume this sense of superiority, for it requires only the clash of cultures that arouses this feeling...

America is being economically conquered. Just as the United States, the corporation laws make it difficult to ascertain...

The King of Kings is personally investing in New York City real estate; a Dutch banker, finding himself stranded here by the war...

Some people believe in lick others; some believe in lick themselves; some believe in lick the world; some believe in lick the nation...

Some people believe in lick others; some believe in lick themselves; some believe in lick the world; some believe in lick the nation...

Some people believe in lick others; some believe in lick themselves; some believe in lick the world; some believe in lick the nation...

Third Annual Ice Carnival Set for Jan. 24

'Queen of the Ice' Election Is Today At High School Birmingham's Third Annual Sports Day, sponsored by the Y. M. C. A., will be held Saturday, Jan. 24, at Quaker Lake...

Red Cross Drive To Close Saturday In the Red Cross drive, Birmingham has netted $87,770.75 in special collections...

Bloomfield Starts Defense Class Civilian defense activities in Bloomfield Township are getting under way this week...

Smoke Nuisance Before Commission A complaint over the smoke nuisance in downtown Birmingham was voiced in a letter to the City Commission...

Community House Saturday Club Will Open this Week for Children of B'ham The Community House Saturday Club will open its eighth yearly session on Saturday, Jan. 17...

Dog Ordinance Changed Slightly Birmingham's dog ordinance was changed slightly by the City Commission...

Moody Asks Survey for Bond Refunding Commissioner Wm. E. Moody suggested that the city council Monday night that the possibility of refunding more city bonds be investigated...

Moody Asks Survey for Bond Refunding Commissioner Wm. E. Moody suggested that the city council Monday night that the possibility of refunding more city bonds be investigated...

Moody Asks Survey for Bond Refunding Commissioner Wm. E. Moody suggested that the city council Monday night that the possibility of refunding more city bonds be investigated...

Moody Asks Survey for Bond Refunding Commissioner Wm. E. Moody suggested that the city council Monday night that the possibility of refunding more city bonds be investigated...

Reinhold Niebuhr; Noted Clergyman Here Next Wednesday for Lecture

Dr. Reinhold Niebuhr, one of the country's most widely known and best known clergymen, will be the next speaker in Birmingham's lecture series...

New Group of Lots To Go on Block In Scavenger Sale

A new group of Birmingham lots which have never been offered in public auction will go on the block Wednesday, Jan. 21...

14 Are Named To Honor Society A group of 14 students was inducted into the Baldwin chapter of the National Honor Society...

Two House Fires Within Past Week Two house fires were extinguished by the Fire Department during the past week...

Deschamps Argument Delays Bank Payoff A final payoff in the First National Bank receivership continues to be delayed...

City Won't Join Coal vs. Gas Suit The City Commission decided Monday night not to intervene in the lawsuit which the Michigan Retail Coal Dealers Association has instituted...

Moody Asks Survey for Bond Refunding Commissioner Wm. E. Moody suggested that the city council Monday night that the possibility of refunding more city bonds be investigated...

Big Auditorium, New Junior High School Scheduled If U. S. Will Pay An auditorium seating 5,000 people—a new central junior high school—a 10-room addition to the school building...

Rep. Dondoro Names Naval Appointments Rep. George A. Dondoro today announced the following nominations for admission to the U. S. Naval Academy...

Rep. Dondoro Names Naval Appointments Rep. George A. Dondoro today announced the following nominations for admission to the U. S. Naval Academy...

Pay Increases Given to Most City Employees

Pay raises of $5 a month for most municipal salaried employees, and an additional 5 cents an hour for the common workers authorized by the City Commission...

WANT CISTERNS Do you have a cistern in your house? If so, the Birmingham Fire Department would like to be placed on the department's cistern map...

Books for Soldiers Coming in Fast As Drive Starts The first trickle of what promises to be a flood of usable, readable books came into the Library on Monday with the opening of the national-wide Victory Book Campaign...

Will Start Canvass For Wastepaper A house-to-house canvass of homes with the current wastepaper drive and to enlist more donors...

Franklyn Whitney Leaves for Army Franklyn Whitney, Baldwin High coach and physical education instructor, member of the over-28 Army Reserve, scheduled to be called back by Feb. 1, 1918...

Two House Fires Within Past Week Two house fires were extinguished by the Fire Department during the past week...

Deschamps Argument Delays Bank Payoff A final payoff in the First National Bank receivership continues to be delayed...

City Won't Join Coal vs. Gas Suit The City Commission decided Monday night not to intervene in the lawsuit which the Michigan Retail Coal Dealers Association has instituted...

Moody Asks Survey for Bond Refunding Commissioner Wm. E. Moody suggested that the city council Monday night that the possibility of refunding more city bonds be investigated...

Big Auditorium, New Junior High School Scheduled If U. S. Will Pay An auditorium seating 5,000 people—a new central junior high school—a 10-room addition to the school building...

Rep. Dondoro Names Naval Appointments Rep. George A. Dondoro today announced the following nominations for admission to the U. S. Naval Academy...

Local Defense Unit Meets First Time

All citizens who have not yet registered for Civilian Defense are urged to do so before the meeting of the Community House Friday evening...

Registration Closes Here Friday Evening

Registration for Civilian Defense is closed here Friday evening. Citizens who have not yet registered are urged to do so before the meeting of the Community House Friday evening...

Major Explains Organization Plans

Major John E. Martin opened the meeting of the Community House Friday evening by explaining the organization plans for the local defense unit...

Will Start Canvass For Wastepaper

A house-to-house canvass of homes with the current wastepaper drive and to enlist more donors...

Franklyn Whitney Leaves for Army

Franklyn Whitney, Baldwin High coach and physical education instructor, member of the over-28 Army Reserve, scheduled to be called back by Feb. 1, 1918...

New Rural Route Will Start Friday

Rural route No. 5, Birmingham's new mail service in the west end of the city, will start tomorrow...

Rep. Dondoro Names Naval Appointments

Rep. George A. Dondoro today announced the following nominations for admission to the U. S. Naval Academy...