

WE HEARD IT SAID BY... E. W. LACKIE, of... Auto Supply: "Some one is riding around in his car with a spare tire that won't fit. I hope he doesn't get a flat! A week ago Sunday, a 6.50-16 tire belonging to another customer was put in his trunk by mistake; the tire being repaired was a 7.00-16. We hope to get it straightened out before he has a need for the tire."

Fire and Sabotage Present Greatest Perils, Rather Than Air Raids, Is View

By GENE ALLEMAN Michigan Press Association LANSING—Because of mounting needs for money, observers here are forecasting that the error will call a special session of the state legislature early in 1942. At the first war-aims session of the state administrative board, national defense needs in Michigan were discussed. State troops organized to replace national units, number 3,200 men. These will probably be increased to 4,160 and later on to 5,000—the full strength point for the guard units they will replace.

State prison industries have been assigned the job of turning out needed military clothing. It was disclosed that the state could not even assign 1,000 men to winter patrol duty except in their civilian overcoats to keep them warm. The daily maintenance cost of the troops will be $200,000—an inkling of the coming cost to the state treasury if Michigan is forced to use the home guard during the war.

Martz Praises The Red Cross

"The Red Cross is the world's greatest non-sectarian organization whose sole purpose is to minister to human suffering. Its support comes not from government but from the hearts of the people themselves. Whether it is a flood, a fire, or a war, there is the Red Cross as a food, its clothing, its nurses, and its doctors. It tolerates no big jobs. It just works. And it works wherever and whenever needed. Never has the world brought forth a movement on which so many people work without pay. Unknown thousands of women workers have doubled their hours. More than 125 army camps and naval stations and an unknown number of war devastated areas look for the appearance of that Red Cross banner on trucks and ambulances. It is always among the first to arrive. "Support the Red Cross in its work of mercy and health. Birmingham will give its quota, but every family must give something. JOHN E. MARTZ, mayor."

'Carries On' Ambulances Readied By Funeral Directors

Bell & Son and Manly Bailey will use their ambulances at the Woodlawn Cemetery, Detroit, today in the first inspection of the Red Cross ambulances for the Detroit area. Today will be the first of its kind in the United States. An inspector will inspect the vehicles. Funeral directors of Detroit under the initiative of Mayor John E. Martz, are expected that 370 vehicles will be available for emergency use. Bell said that besides their ambulances, they are converting their hearses for possible use.

BOOKS

(Continued from Page One) "We stole a march on you," he chuckled, "and the books are ready to go. Fill 'em up over to the library, myself, too."

Minor Campaigns

Holy Name Parish and the American Legion are putting on minor campaigns of their own. Books may be deposited in the church and in the Legion Home. Other points are the Wilson Drug Store, Birmingham, the Bank, Cranbrook School, the Fox and Hounds, the Masonic Lodge, the St. Brothers Mints, the Cream Co., the A & T and Malloy's.

Fire Peril

As modern war is all-out, involving civilians as well as the military, the importance of fire aid and other protective services is being emphasized. Volunteer squads are wanted. Volunteer first aid crews are needed. Volunteer bandages and other equipment are desperately needed. Without hysterics, but with quiet thoroughness, local units of the Red Cross are being organized. Members of the committee are Ginny Bostwick, Ann Hill, Bill Burton, and Bill Garfield. Miss W. Robinson, principal of Barium School, will be chairman of the officials' committee, according to Robert Lark, secretary. Boy Scouts and Learned Goodrich, commissioner, will look after traffic. Dr. Milo M. Boswick will be chairman of the figure skating committee. Complete plans for the various events and races will be announced next week.

DEFENSE

TIRE RATIONING BOARD

No request for tires has yet been received by the local rationing board, composed of George W. Mints, Forbes S. Hasell and Walter R. Raychel. The procedure to follow is that the manager of City Manager Ebert, assistant Defense Council chairman. Persons who are in the field must first secure an application blank from the City Clerk and then go to one of four motorist clubs (yet planned) who will determine whether the tire can be recycled. If not, the request then goes to the rationing board which approves or rejects the request, sending it to the County Board, which has final authority.

Sheltered

Easy access and escape are features of an air raid shelter built at Lexington, Mass. Joseph McKinney, 9, demonstrates what he would do if entrance was blocked. He did built the shelter, believed to be first of its kind in New England.

RED CROSS (Continued from Page One) carry on the many other benevolent activities of the Red Cross. Mrs. Harold H. Corson reports that the income contributed to the Children's Fund of the American Red Cross totaled $124,932. This includes $2,000 from four groups of carols at Christmas, $126,114 from the Birmingham public schools, $12,220 from the two public schools at West Mobile, and $13,570 from the Holy Name parish school. Mrs. Corson also reports that the money collected by Red Cross volunteers at the two theatres during the holidays amounted to $119,000. All these contributions and those sent direct to Mrs. Corson are part of the drive headed by Mr. Kinison and Isaac W. Robertson for the American War Relief.
