

D. A. R. Names Winners of Good Citizenship Awards In Oakland County

Sally Carey and Betty Hunt Will Receive Medals Honored by Organization

Sally Carey, Baldwin High School student, and Betty Hunt, student at Roosevelt High School, Keeno Harbor, have been selected for the Good Citizenship Awards offered annually by the D. A. R. of the two outstanding high school girls of Oakland County. Mrs. E. P. Cobb, chairman, announced this week. One state representative will later be chosen from county winners throughout Michigan, and will be offered a trip to Washington, D. C., with all expenses paid during the month of April.

Sally Carey

Betty Hunt

Sally and Betty were chosen on the basis of dependability, service, leadership, and participation by members of the faculty and student bodies of their respective high schools. They will be feted locally at tea early in March, at which time they will be awarded good citizenship medals. Later in March they will attend a luncheon at the state D. A. R. Conference in Jackson, Mich., when the names of the state representative will be revealed.

Student activities led by Sally include being secretary of her class in the tenth and eleventh grades, vice-president of the senior class, secretary of the student congress, and a member of the National Historical Society. She was also photography editor of the Royal Oak Birmingham football program, associate editor of the 1941 Piper, W. W. Abbott, superintendent of the Roosevelt High School, and editor of the 1941 Piper. She is also a member of the strongest candidate we have had so far. This is the highest honor that can be bestowed upon a student of Roosevelt School.

Detroit Symphony
With the internationally renowned violinist, Adolf Busch as soloist, and with Tauno Hannikainen, noted Finnish conductor, as guest director, the Detroit Symphony Orchestra will play the only all-Brahms program of the season on Thursday night, Jan. 22, and Friday afternoon, Jan. 23, in Masonic Temple.

The program "Variations on a Theme by Haydn, Op. 56; Violin Concerto in D Major, Op. 77; Fourth Symphony in E Minor, Op. 98.

Have You Met . . .
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Coulson who have just moved into their new home at 10 Tiverton in Bloomfield Hills, from Kensington Road in Detroit? Being ardent horse fans, all three members of the Coulson family naturally like to live in the country. They have one child, Joan, who is in the sixth grade at St. Hugo Day School. Mr. Coulson is a Chrysler-Plymouth dealer in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Taylor, who are now living in their newly completed Cape Cod Colonial home on Bloomfield Lane? The Taylors can hardly wait till spring to get at their gardening, or 'farming' as they call it, which seems to be their principal hobby. Mr. Taylor is with the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company in Detroit.

Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Gehrke of 724 Glenary road? They moved here from Grasse Pointe just because they thought they would like it here. The Gehrkes have one son, Robert, who is a sophomore at the University of Michigan this year. Dr. Gehrke is an eye, ear, nose and throat specialist with offices in Detroit.

The Frank C. Smiths who are living at 1217 Washington boulevard? The Smiths lived in Detroit prior to moving here, although Mrs. Smith's home originally was in Boston, Mass. Mr. Smith is a native of Birmingham. They have a 20-month-old son, Peter Gilbert. Mr. Smith is a sales engineer for the Y. C. Smith Company.

The Claire Dunbars and their four-month old son David? Although the Dunbars moved here from Kalamazoo, they had lived in Detroit formerly. So when Mr. Dunbar was transferred back to the Detroit office, they decided to live in Birmingham. Mr. Dunbar is special agent for the Fire and Marine Insurance Company. They are living at 544 Harper avenue.
