Betty Ann Pease, Lieut; David White To Repeat Vows Saturday Afternoon

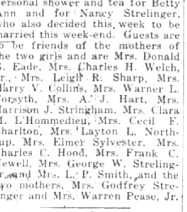

Just when Birmingham Society gets settled into somewhat of a routine, another surprise announcement appears. This time it's Betty Ann Pease, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Pease, Jr., who has decided to postpone her marriage to Lieut. David White no longer, and has set this Saturday afternoon for the wedding.

The marriage will take place at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon in the St. James Episcopal Church with the Rev. Warner L. Forsyth officiating. The wedding will be an informal one with only close friends and members of the immediate families of the young couple attending. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Pease will

Miss Jean Houff, George Cavanaugh To Wed Saturday

Saturday morning at 10 o'clock Jean Houff will become the bride of George C. Cavanaugh, Jr., in a ceremony performed at Holy Name Chapel. Following the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. M. Houff will be hosts at a bridal breakfast for their daughter and new son-in-law in their home on Waddington road.

Parties that have been keeping Saturday morning at 10 o'clock Jean Houff will become the bride of George C. Cavanaugh, Jr., in a ceremony performed at Holy Name Chapel.

Nancy Strelinger and Lieut. C. N. Page To Wed Sunday in Washington, D. C.

News of the week seems to center around weddings. One of the most interesting is that of Nancy Strelinger and Lieut. C. N. Page, who are to be married in Washington, D. C., on Sunday afternoon. Nancy is the daughter of the Godfrey Strelingers, of Dorchester road, and Lieut. Page is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Page, of Bloomfield Hills.

Lauretta Allison Engaged to Wed

The betrothal of Lauretta Allison to Richard Wade was announced last week by Miss Allison's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Laurence B. Allison at a tea in their home on Lanchester road, Detroit. Mr. Wade is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy J. Wade, of Three Rivers, Mich.

The news was made known by means of small scrolls tied with ribbons on the end of which were rosebuds, which were handed out to guests who attended the tea. Inside the scrolls resembled legal documents, bearing the proclamation of the engagement of Lauretta and Dick.

Social Briefs

MRS. THOMAS J. LITTLE, JR. is spending this week with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Colin Campbell, of Lakeview avenue. Mrs. Campbell entertained members of her book club at a dinner luncheon on Tuesday afternoon.
