

Mary Coombs Wed Wedding in Garden Unites To Lt. C. Guilford Lucette Cranford, Paul Wayman

Mary Evelyn Coombs, daughter of Mrs. William A. Coombs, of Cross Pointe was married Tuesday afternoon at the Cross Pointe Memorial Church to Lieut. Charles F. Guilford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Butz, of Edison avenue, and the late C. A. Guilford. The Rev. Frank Pitt officiated.

The bride wore a tailored suit of yellow shantung with navy blue and white accessories. Her flowers were white orchids. Her sister, Martha, who wore a tailored suit of kelly green, white accessories, and a corsage of gardenias, was her only attendant.

After the ceremony, guests assembled for the reception at the home of the bride's mother. Later the couple left for Camp Roberts, Calif., where they will make their home. Lt. Guilford was recently graduated from Officers Training School at Fort Benning, Ga.

WAR COSTS MONEY— BUT LIBERTY IS PRICELESS Help Win the War with the Money You Save Of course freedom is expensive. The highest price tags are always attached to the most precious items. And the cost of human liberty in blood and treasure is a staggering one. But to be able to speak and pray and think and vote the way we wish—did you ever hear anyone question the cost? Some Americans are paying the cost with their lives. Others are buying as many as five Defense Stamps and Bonds as they possibly can—every day. Are you doing your share? In order to provide every opportunity for the daily purchase of Stamps and Bonds, we're now selling them at each cash register in our store. Wherever you go, whenever you can, buy your share in our country's most precious possession—the Liberty, the Freedom of America!
