

Many Will Stay at Home for July Fourth Programs at Nearby Country Clubs

Swimming, Tennis, Golf and Dancing, Order of the Day

Extensive Fourth of July programs have been set up at the various country clubs near here—programs that will more than compensate for a too short holiday weekend. Rather than drive 200 miles, on precious tires, in search of fun, club members can enjoy one of the most complete holidays yet, right at home.

Bloomfield Hills Club
Patriotic, red, white, and blue, V of victory folders from the Bloomfield Hills Country Club announce plans for a gala dinner dance to be held at the club Saturday evening, July 4. Jack Quinley and his popular orchestra will furnish the music, which will be supplemented by the "strolling trio" entertainment.

Oakland Hills Club
Out at Oakland Hills Country Club, Independence Day activities start out the first thing in the morning with a "Hail America" tournament in aid of war relief and defense. The tournament will wind-up on Sunday. A mixed two-ball foursome has been scheduled at noon. In the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Donald A. Murray, recreation directors, have arranged for children's tennis and races, which will be followed by the children and junior swimming contest.

There will be a buffet dinner and dancing that evening. Children will take over from 6 until 8 p. m. and adults and juniors are to get in their dancing between 8 p. m. and midnight.

Orchard Lake Country Club
Saturday morning at Orchard Lake Country Club there will be a "Hail America" tournament, kickers handicap, and chipping contest, and proceeds of all these will be donated to the Red Cross that afternoon there will also be a mixed four ball tournament.

Water and boat activities for the day include a three-colored race for girls, boys, and men in the morning, and races for ladies and men in the afternoon.

Children will enjoy the day, too—for one thing they will have

Here's a Toast To Miss Vitamin

Restaurant hostess Helen Couch, Excelsior Springs, Mo., has been chosen "Miss Vitamin" by a committee of prominent restaurant men. Blond and 20, Miss Couch prefers milk when she drinks a toast.

Free ice cream comes all day. Foot races, as well as a golf-putting contest, have been planned for them—in the afternoon, and the big event of the day is the circus at 7:30 p. m. There will be a buffet luncheon throughout the day with music during the cocktail hour.

Pine Lake Country Club
Golf, tennis, swimming, and dining, plus special activities for children, is the order of the day at Pine Lake Country Club. The annual inter-club tennis matches with Orchard Lake Country club will take place on the Pine Lake course on Saturday morning. In golf there will be a flag tournament and driving contest, and for the children, faces and games have been planned and will be supervised by Barbara Holland.

Margaret J. Cogsdill Wed in Washington

Margaret Jean Cogsdill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart A. Cogsdill, of Orchard Lake, became the bride of Capt. Gene A. Cogsdill of Everett, Wash., son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene C. White, of Detroit, on Friday, June 19, in the Trinity Episcopal Church at Everett, Wash.

Miss Cogsdill's engagement was announced last week. She and many parties had been already planned for her when she decided to accept the date ahead. She went West with her mother and her sister, Kathryn.

For her wedding the bride wore a navy blue jacket dress trimmed with touches of green, a small navy hat, and carried a prayer book and white orchids. Mrs. Cogsdill, who gave the bride away in marriage, as Mr. Cogsdill was unable to get there in time, wore powder blue crepe and an orchid corsage. Kathryn was maid of honor for her sister and Lieut. John Grogan, of Detroit, was best man. The bridegroom's father and his sister, Bessie, were also present at the ceremony. Following the marriage, Mrs. Cogsdill entertained at a small reception at the Monte Cristo Hotel.

Lt. Donald Clark Wed on June 21 At Berthoud, Colo.

Of interest in Birmingham this week is news of the marriage of Lt. Donald Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Clark, of Oak street, to Gene E. E. Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Peterson, of Loveland, Colo. The wedding was an event of Sunday afternoon, June 21, and took place in the United Brethren Church, Berthoud, Colo., in the Rev. A. V. Howland officiating.

For her wedding the bride chose a gown of embroidered white silk organza, finished with a bouffant skirt, fitted bodice and short puffed sleeves. She also wore a fingertip length veil and carried a bridal bouquet of Johanna roses and stephanotis.

Elizabeth Peterson, sister of the groom and honor attendant, wore a dress of gold taffeta and carried a bouquet of Johanna roses and delphinium. Bruce Peterson, brother of the bride, was best man for Lt. Clark. Acting as usher were Bill Hanna and Bill Peterson.

After the ceremony, a wedding reception was held in the church parlors. Mrs. Peterson was given in black lace and wore a large floral corsage. Her carriage was of rose and carnations.

The bridal couple spent a few days at Estes Park and then drove to Birmingham to visit Lieut. Clark's parents. Lieut. Clark is stationed at Fort Belvoir, in the United States Army Air Force.

Mrs. Clark was graduated from Loveland High School and from the University of Colorado, where she was affiliated with Alpha Chi Omega. Lieut. Clark attended Central Michigan High School and Central Michigan University of Colorado in 1941 and was a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.

Hulsapple-Kopta Troth Told Friday

The surprise announcement of the marriage of Miss Hulsapple to Charles Rains Kopta was made last Friday evening by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hulsapple, of Fairfax avenue, at a time when she was supposed to have been a birthday party in their home. Mr. Kopta is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kopta, of Robinson, Ill.

Names of the engaged couple were written on the small tea cakes. Also revealing the news was the table centerpiece, which was a miniature bride and groom. The ceremony is to take place at the home of the bride-elect's parents.

Both of the young people attended Central Michigan College of Education at Mt. Pleasant, Mich., and Miss Hulsapple has been teaching in Muskegon.

Guests at the party last Friday evening included Lieut. James Scribner, of Birmingham, William Voss, of Rochester, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jones, of Detroit, and from Pontiac, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jacober, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hayes, Frank Bachelder, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hand, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Balmer, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dawe, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. John Thever, and Mrs. Walter Honshel, and Ruth Bolthouse.

Smith-Byers Rites Event of July 25

Bettie Smith and Richard Byers have decided on Saturday, July 25, as the date for their wedding. The ceremony is to be performed by Dr. W. Glen Harris at 4 o'clock in the afternoon in the First Presbyterian church. Only members of the immediate family will be present for the ceremony, however a large reception will be held at the Community House immediately following the marriage.

Robert Byers, brother of the bridegroom-elect, is to be best man, and Bettie's sister, Esther, will be her maid of honor. Bettie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Smith of Lincoln avenue, and Richard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Byers, of Charter Oak, Iowa.

Taking up residence in the Alden Park Manor on Jefferson avenue in Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Taylor formerly of 2812 Westwood drive, Birmingham, have rented their house to Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Nelson.

Bride Wears Period Gown for Rites Saturday Evening

The marriage of Mary Jane McCurry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry McCurry, of Parkland road, and Harry Blaine Black, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Black, of Elizabeth Lake, was solemnized at an impressive ceremony Saturday evening at 8:30 o'clock in Christ Church, Cranbrook, by Rev. Warner Forsyth officiating.

The bride wore a dress, reminiscent of the 17th century, made of white satin and trimmed with Alencon lace at the sweetheart neckline and at the cuffs of the fitted sleeves. Her full skirt, draped over hoops, extended into a long train. Her long tulle veil was fastened to a small cap of seed pearls and she carried a white prayer book with showers of white satin ribbon, white carnations and stephanotis.

Elizabeth McCurry, maid of honor for her sister, wore a dress with a fitted bodice of white jersey, styled with three-quarter length sleeves, sweetheart neckline and a full marquisette skirt. Her bouquet was of red roses and white baby's breath. Mrs. John enterlain at a rehearsal dinner out at Oakland Hills Country Club.

The wedding ceremony is to be performed by the Rev. One Berkeley, of the St. Columbus Church, Detroit, who also officiated at the wedding. Nora, preceding the wedding, the bride-elect's parents will entertain at a rehearsal dinner out at Oakland Hills Country Club. The dinner is being held at James Hawkes of Boston, Mass., to entertain the bride-elect, Robert Jones, of Detroit, and his bride, Kathryn.

This evening Nora plans to entertain a group of her friends at dinner in her home.

Noble-Bell Rites Will Be Saturday

At high noon on Saturday, July 4, Carol Noble, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John William Noble, of Rochester, will become the bride of Robert James Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Bell, of Birmingham. The ceremony will be performed in the St. Paul's Methodist Church.

Ellen Jones, of Rochester, is to be maid of honor, and Mrs. Richard Brown, of Fort Worth, is to be the bride's attendant. John W. Bell will be best man and seating the guests will be William Bell, of Alton, and Harry of Birmingham, and Frank Jones, of Rochester.

The bride-elect was honored at a rehearsal shower given by Ellen Jones, in her home, on Friday evening, June 19. A surprise shower was also given by Mrs. Noble by the Young People's Fellowship of St. Paul's Church, of Rochester, last Saturday.

Mrs. John H. Basch, god-mother of the bride-elect, gave a rehearsal dinner for Miss Noble and Mr. Bell at her home last evening.
