

What kind of a nation will we be when this war is over? Well, just when this war is over, are while we are in it, are we...

West Valley-Lahser District News Service

OVER THE TOP FOR VICTORY UNITED STATES WAR BONDS-STAMPS

SIXTY-FIFTH YEAR—NO. 18

BIRMINGHAM, OAKLAND COUNTY, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, JULY 30, 1942

$1.50 PER YEAR (In Oakland County)—SINGLE COPIES, 5c

Lawsuit Perils Use of City's Southfield Well

Mrs. Van Rensselaer Asks Injunction to Stop Use of Water

A threat to Birmingham's water supply is contained in a suit filed in Circuit Court at Pontiac by Mrs. Betty Van Rensselaer...

Boomerang Former Cranbrook Headmaster's Son Is War Casualty

Ensign Mason Stevens, 27-year-old unmarried son of Dr. and Mrs. William O. Stevens, was killed Tuesday while carrying out his duties connected with action on a U. S. aircraft carrier...

Saves Metal

If Uncle Sam wants the metal from old-time tin boxes, he's welcome to them...

New Teachers Hired Building OK'd At July Meeting of School Board

Five new teachers were engaged by the Board of Education in its meeting held Wednesday...

West Maple Bus Service Inaugurated

As Birmingham's new War Transportation Committee prepared to hold its first meeting...

New Transportation Committee Plans Its First Meeting

As Birmingham's new War Transportation Committee prepared to hold its first meeting...

Have You Ever Felt "The Call"

Did you ever feel the urge for the "call" to become a candidate for some public office?

War Shortages Negate City Code

This huge rubber ball, apparently used as a buoy for a Jap fishing net, was found near Southfield. Wouldn't the Nip's face be red if he knew he had contributed to Uncle Sam's rubber scrap drive by way of the Pacific waves.

War Shortages Negate City Code

A general addition to various Birmingham ordinances to cover shortages brought by the war was suggested at the City Commission Monday night.

Ask Donors Today For Blood Bank

Approximately 230 volunteers were signed up to contribute blood to the Birmingham Blood Bank at its first program in Birmingham yesterday afternoon...

Ask Donors Today For Blood Bank

Approximately 230 volunteers were signed up to contribute blood to the Birmingham Blood Bank at its first program in Birmingham yesterday afternoon...

Name 32 More Auxiliary Police

Thirty-two more men have completed their training as auxiliaries with the Birmingham Police Department and will receive their diplomas at a barbecue to be held this evening at the Birmingham Gun Club.

Symphony Series Here Continues

Pvt. John Schickling, baritone of Fort Custer, is to be the guest artist next Wednesday evening at the concert to be given by the Michigan Symphony Orchestra...

Legion Post Joins Combined Ritual

Charles Edwards Post No. 14, Birmingham, will join six other posts of the 17th district in a joint installation of their newly-elected officers...

Department Heads Bring in the Cash

A favorable report was given to the City Commission Monday night by the superintendent of the water department, who is none other than City Manager D. C. Egelert...

15 Additional Men Inducted by Army

Fifteen Birmingham men passed their Army physical examination in Detroit, Monday, and were inducted into the service...

Community House Closed During August

The Birmingham Community House will be closed for the month of August and until the day after Labor Day, it was announced this morning by Mrs. Julia K. Lally, director.

Police Barbecue On Thursday Eve

Birmingham police regulars and auxiliary will hold a picnic at a ball game evening at the Birmingham gun club property, a rectangular island of township property, contained within the east side of the City...

Donkey Baseball Game Tonight

A donkey baseball game will be held this evening, July 30, at 7:30 o'clock at the Torrey Field. The evening is being sponsored by the Birmingham Recreation Center...

Barnum Pool Remains Popular Spot As Hot Weather Here Continues

Easily the most popular of all recreational spots in Birmingham, the Barnum Pool is currently the scene of swimming tests for the city's public schools...

Home of Alien Raided Near Here

One home to the west of Birmingham was raided Sunday evening by a team of police officers...

Rotarians Here Priority Expert

C. I. Easton, director of priorities for the War Production Board's regional office in Detroit, was the speaker at Monday's meeting of the Rotary Club...

Reporter Investigates Lure of Fur Coats in Summer

The majority of us will never understand just why women in the winter, will stand freezing before the wind, and in the summer, will wear fur coats...

Gets Real Baptism

Gene Hadjisky, 74 South Bays, really got a baptism into the steamboat business last Saturday...

Hardware Stores To Close Early

Birmingham's three hardware stores will close at 6 p. m. on August 1, according to the Birmingham Chamber of Commerce...

Some People Believe in Luck

Some people believe in luck. Some believe in fate. Some believe in destiny. Some believe in the stars. Some believe in the planets. Some believe in the zodiac. Some believe in the horoscope. Some believe in the palm lines. Some believe in the tea leaves. Some believe in the coffee grounds. Some believe in the tarot cards. Some believe in the Ouija board. Some believe in the pendulum. Some believe in the crystal ball. Some believe in the astrology. Some believe in the numerology. Some believe in the geomancy. Some believe in the chiromancy. Some believe in the augury. Some believe in the divination. Some believe in the necromancy. Some believe in the magic. Some believe in the witchcraft. Some believe in the sorcery. Some believe in the alchemy. Some believe in the astrology. Some believe in the numerology. Some believe in the geomancy. Some believe in the chiromancy. Some believe in the augury. Some believe in the divination. Some believe in the necromancy. Some believe in the magic. Some believe in the witchcraft. Some believe in the sorcery. Some believe in the alchemy.

ASKS FIRST AID COURSE

An unusual request was made of a student—came from Elizabeth Phelps, a student at Baldwin High School...

Board Discusses at Length Need for a Better Priority Education Program

The board discussed at some length the need for a better priority education program for the first time, such training will be required by all students in the fall, 2 1/2 periods a week.

Home of Alien Raided Near Here

One home to the west of Birmingham was raided Sunday evening by a team of police officers...

"A BIRD IN THE HAND IS WORTH TWO IN THE BUSH"

Furthermore, an Eccentric Want Ad gathers no moss. Our metaphors seen mixed, but what we are trying to say is, merely, that cash in the pocket, gained by using Classified Ads, is worth much more than frozen assets in your attic or garage.

Use the Classifieds

"Still at the same low price." Phone 11 before 4 p. m. Wednesdays

Use the Classifieds

"Still at the same low price." Phone 11 before 4 p. m. Wednesdays

Use the Classifieds

"Still at the same low price." Phone 11 before 4 p. m. Wednesdays

Use the Classifieds

"Still at the same low price." Phone 11 before 4 p. m. Wednesdays

Use the Classifieds

"Still at the same low price." Phone 11 before 4 p. m. Wednesdays

Use the Classifieds

"Still at the same low price." Phone 11 before 4 p. m. Wednesdays

Use the Classifieds

"Still at the same low price." Phone 11 before 4 p. m. Wednesdays

Use the Classifieds

"Still at the same low price." Phone 11 before 4 p. m. Wednesdays