

Cranbrook Class Given Diplomas

Edward A. Weeks, Jr., editor of the Atlantic Monthly, was the speaker at the annual graduation exercises of Cranbrook School held Saturday morning at Christ Church. Taking part were the Rev. Frank W. Creighton, S. T. D., Episcopal Bishop of Michigan, and the Rev. Lewis Bliss Whittemore, D.D., Bishop of the Western Michigan diocese, whose son was a member of the class...

Lathrup Townsite News

ELECTIONS HELD Lathrup Townsite Civic Association held its last meeting of the year Wednesday, June 3, at which time election of officers took place. L. H. France was unanimously re-elected president; C. W. Harter, secretary and treasurer. Directors for the coming term will be: L. Kuykendall, and S. Odie Lath.

Non-Priority Hat

On Tuesday evening, June 9, a school board election was held. M. Campbell was unanimously re-elected treasurer. The Annie Lathrup school is now running on a pay-as-you-go basis...

Social News

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Bradley, of Nebraska, are the house guests of the newly-wedded daughter, Mrs. Ernest F. Zatorsky, of California drive...

On Submarine

Ensign Roy C. Uhlman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl P. Uhlman, is on submarine duty. His last letter stated he had recently spent five days at sea on the Pacific Ocean. After three days in, he was about to sail again...

War Bonnets

New summer collections of "war bonnets" will be made of materials not subject to priorities. Glass straw, glass bond trim, and pearl and pins were used in this creation by Lily Dedic.

19 Given Diplomas At B'field High

Nineteen students were granted diplomas in annual commencement exercises of the Bloomfield High School held last Thursday evening. Phyllis Jean Brown, Margery Hillidge Clark, Elizabeth Courtney Clarke, Marion Clarke, Vernon G. Converse, III...

Three New Houses Started in May

Only two new single houses and one two-family house were started in Birmingham during May, showing the effects of the war. However, there were many garages, bringing the total for the month to $25,000.

Happenings of Long Ago

50 Years Ago June 9, 1892 Mrs. Tillie Rundel was bicycling in the village last Saturday afternoon and a very rapid and graceful rider she is, too. "I am going out of business the first of July and until then I will close out my entire stock at and below cost. Hats from five to 75c, a nice lot of ribbons at 25c a yard, Sarah Hanna. Don't forget the Presbyterian Sunday School, June next Saturday at Belle Isle. From all appearances everyone and his best girl are here. The seniors will give a lawn social at Mr. Patton's home on June 16. All the delicacies of the season served, ice cream, strawberries, cake, etc. Everybody should attend and help in coming with their financial program."

Neighbor Guilty In Assault Case

The neighborhood scrap of Anthony J. Terbeck, Jr., 768 Davis street, and Joseph W. Bierl, 771 Davis, was settled in Justice Forbeck's court, Tuesday. Thursday white Terbeck was found guilty of assault and battery and sentenced $10 costs. Bierl, who posted $10 costs before the trial, hadn't got that back and won't unless he pays the $10 costs...

Final Honor Roll At Vaughan School

Final honors having been given to the students of Bloomfield Hills School last Friday, the honor roll for 1941-42 is being selected. The students are as follows: High Honors stands 12—Martha Jean Hall; 11—Theresa Dostal, Sigfried Grause and Jack Lauer; 9—George Hoyt; 8—Kay Ballantyne and Winifred Lanier; 7—Jan Hoyt, John Spencer and Jo Ann Rannins.

Wellesley Alumnae Await Mme. Chiang

Madame Chiang Kai Shek will speak over the C. B. S. radio net work, directly from China, to her Wellesley-Lodge classmates on Saturday, June 13, at either 10 to 10:30 a. m. The occasion is the 25th anniversary of her graduation from Wellesley. Alumnae associations of the college have set Saturday aside as Madame Chiang Kai Shek Day and have set her picture to be used as she wishes.

Swell Shot

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Bailey had money to Clarkston. "Mrs. W. C. Harris gave a birthday party Friday evening in the club house. Covers were laid for 12 guests."

East Of Birmingham

A card party held at Poppleton School, corner of Crooks road and Sixteen Mile, last Monday afternoon, was sponsored by Poppleton Stitch and Chatter Club. A number of Birmingham and local dignitaries generously donated prizes for the party. Neighborly women baked cakes and brought flowers to dress up the school. All funds from the party were given to the U. S. O.

Social Briefs

MR. AND MRS. J. J. ROURA, JR., of Euclid avenue, are leaving this week for Wellesley, Mass., to attend the graduation exercises of their daughter, KITTIE, from Wellesley College, June 15. Following commencement, Kitty will visit in Lakeside, Y. S. McDowell, E. L., and attend the wedding of Eileen Loy, a classmate, in New York City on June 20 before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Marius A. Duffong

MR. AND MRS. MARIUS A. DUFFONG, of Mohegan drive, held open house at their home on Monday evening for their daughter, SENTA MARIE, in honor of her graduation from St. Mary's High School in Royal Oak. Around 50 guests, many of whom were from Detroit, attended the party.

Mrs. Coe's Pupils Present Piano Recital

Mrs. Frank Coe presented her piano pupils in recital at the Community House last Saturday evening, June 6. Those participating were Janet McCreedy, Patricia Page, Mary Halliday, Lois McLessee, Barbara Fluxus, Joan Page, Billie Luskombe, Alice Schweizer.

Large advertisement for A.P. Market featuring various fresh produce like potatoes, onions, beans, and fruits, along with dairy products like cheese and butter. Includes a 'Smart People Say' testimonial and a 'Buy Defense Savings Stamps' promotion.

BUY DEFENSE SAVINGS STAMPS advertisement with a graphic of a stamp.

SCOT GRANULATED SUGAR advertisement with a graphic of a sugar container.

NORTHERN TISSUE advertisement with a graphic of a tissue box.

Advertisement for various grocery items like corn relish, pressed ham, and starch.