Birmingham-Bloomfield Folk Anxiously Awaiting Annual Horse Show

Many Entertain At Pine Lake Party

A full house is expected tomorrow afternoon at Pine Lake Country Club at the first bridge luncheon and big style show being staged there under the direction of Mrs. Bertram H. Brandt, general chairman. In charge of the style show is Mrs. Lewis B. Sappington. Others assisting Mrs. Brandt are Mrs. A. T. Perring and Mrs. E. C. Kneale.

A few of the members who are planning to entertain their friends at the party are Mrs. Earle B. Wilson, Mrs. Robert S. Porritt, Mrs. D. R. Larkin, all of whom have reservations for four. Mrs. W. J. Daeschner and Mrs. William C. Howe have reserved a table and Mrs. Harry D. Vaughn and Mrs. Ray R. Eppert will be co-hostesses at two tables. Mrs. Victor Nelson, of Pohtiac, will have as her guests, Mrs. Benjamin H. Anibal, Mrs. Robert H. Ahlers, and Mrs. Frank A. Mercer.

Mrs. Dennis J. Tibble is entertaining seven friends. More who have reserved a table are Mrs. Arthur V. Handren, Mrs. William B. Crawford, Mrs. Homer Williams, and Mrs. Bertram H. Brandt.

Garden Wedding Reception Follows Afternoon Rites

Monday afternoon was the perfect setting for the traditional June wedding at which Ruth Elizabeth Hargreaves and the Rev. G. Clare Backhurst repeated their nuptial vows. Ruth is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Hargreaves and the bridegroom is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. George Backhurst of Detroit.

The wedding ceremony was performed by the Rev. Charles H. Cadiagan and the bridegroom's father at the altar of Christ Church Cranbrook, which was decorated with white daisies and snapdragons. Carrying out all the customs that make for a truly romantic wedding, Ruth chose to wear the bridal gown worn by her sister-in-law, Mrs. William B. Hargreaves. It was made of heavy white satin with a formal court train. Rose pointe lace edged the deep square neckline and the skirt was caught here and there with orange blossoms. A coronet of the same heirloom rose pointe topped her veil of tulle, and she carried a bouquet of white gardenias and roses.

Miss Hargreaves

Lemon yellow organdy, embroidered with tiny white flowers, was the material used for the honor attendants gowns. The dresses were made with sweetheart necklines, tiny aprons tied in big perky bows, and short sleeves. Mrs. William B. Hargreaves was matron of honor and Jeannette Nicol, maid of honor.

The bridesmaids wore similar dresses made of blue organdy, and a miniature of their gowns was worn by little Mary Joan Hargreaves, niece of the bride. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Geoffrey Letchworth, of Buffalo, Elsa Mohr, of Ardmore, Pa., Regina Fitzrandolph, of Boston, Mass., Mrs. John Hollenbeck, of Springfield, Ohio, Mrs. Phillip Brumder, of Hartland, Wis., Dorothy Backhurst, Barbara Shuell and Ruth Mary Whittlesey.

The Rev. Robert L. DeWitt was best man. The ushers included Rowland and Reginald Backhurst, Ensign Robert C. Hargreaves, William B. Hargreaves, Erskine Crossley, and Dr. John Horton. Another important member of the male part of the wedding party was Master Bobbie Backhurst, ring bearer and nephew of the bridegroom.

The Hargreaves held the wedding reception in the gardens of their home following the ceremony. Mrs. Hargreaves was in gray blue crepe and Mrs. Backhurst chose French blue for the occasion. After the reception the Rev. and Mrs. Backhurst left on a wedding trip of around two weeks in the Smokies. They will make their home in Dearborn.

Partial Entry List For Event Includes Top Notch Horses

Entries were closed last Thursday for the eighth annual Detroit Spring Horse Show, to be held June 12, 13 and 14 at the Bloomfield Open Hunt. Last minute entries will be accepted by George Garner, horse show secretary, however, as the past several weeks have been filled to the brim with other shows, in Northville, Lansing and Jackson, which have kept next week's participants constantly on the move.

This weekend finds them thronging back to town, however, ready for the big event in Bloomfield. In place of the customary trophies of previous years, war bonds will be given, this year. In addition, this is to be a charity affair, with the proceds going to the Army and Navy Recreation League. William O. Bridge, general chairman, is in charge of all arrangements.

A partial list of entries already is available. Well known horse enthusiasts from all over the United States and Canada will show. These include: Mrs. Hugh Barclay, of Douglaston Manor Farm, Pollask, N. Y.; W. J. Thurston, of Stratford, Ont.; Mrs. Raymond C. Firestone, of Lauray Farms, Germantown, Tenn.; R. K. Mellon, of Rolling Rock Farms, Penn.; Boson's Farms, Bloomfield; Truemor Farm, Novi; Bernhard Ziessow's Tuxedo Acres; Charles D. Pierce, Metamora; Elliott Slocum Nichols, Janey Briggs, Mrs. Everell Fisher, Mrs. Carlton M. Higbie, J. D. Rucker, Frank W. Shuell, Mrs. W. D. McCullough, William McHattie, Shirley Wallace, the Hamilton Patterson's, Susan Carey.

In the saddle class, entries have been filled for Dr. Robert A. Elrod, and Harry E. Collin, of Toledo; Mrs. John Haller, Mrs. Carl Snyder, Mrs. John Bradley, Marianne Shapero, Delores Blackett, all of Northville; Jimmy Casson, and Bunty Carter, of Jackson; and Reuben Simon, of Pontiac.

GIRL SCOUTS

Just think, we made a little more money on our penny drive this year than we did last year! It must be that all our friends understand and remember the important thing we all have been saying all year—that Girl Scouting is Defense. We want to thank all of you who worked on the penny drive, leaders, girls, mothers, and council members. It is good for us to work together.

Mrs. Kindley's Brownie troop had a birthday picnic at Springdale Park on Monday, June 8. The troop is three years old. They also planned a tea for their leaders, Mrs. Kindley and Mrs. Cobb. It was held at the home of Mrs. E. D. Merriam.

The Brownies in Mrs. C. L. Richards' troop are going to have an overnight trip just like the big girls. It will be June 15 and they will stay at the Cabin. Mrs. Stanley Ross will help Mrs. Richards.

The modernization plans for the Cabin are progressing well. With the help and advice of the Lions club it won't be long before everything is done to make it a comfortable place the year around.

Watch this column for news of the Day Camp. You all are going to want to go.

First AWVS County Meeting Held at Apple Lane Farm

The first county meeting of AWVS was held recently in the studio of Mrs. Lee Pope Hill at Apple Lane Farm. Mrs. Philip Pretz, county organizer, presided at the sessions where the various branches reported their activities. Cooperation with all legitimate wartime and welfare agencies, was the theme and aim of all groups. At the present time AWVS is working in cooperation with the USO, Kingswood School Defense Institute, OCD, the American Legion, and police departments—the latter to help with fingerprinting.

Mr. Protheroe Will Present Voice Pupils At Recital on Monday

On Monday, June 15th, at 8:15 o'clock Frederick A. Protheroe will present a number of pupils in recital, to be held in the auditorium of the Detroit Federation of Women's Clubs, Second boulevard at Hancock Ave. The artists from Birmingham include Miss Eleanor Ware who will sing "Nightingales Sing No More in the Wood," Gretchaninoff, and "The Sweet of the Year" by Rogers.

Lois Thomasson Bampton will offer "Psyche" by Paladilhe and "Chere Nuit" by Bachelet. Hugh Davies, soloist at Christ Church Cranbrook, has chosen "Lungi dal caro bene" Secchi and "O Had dier than the Cherry" from "Aida and Galathea" — Handel. Nioma Sherman, soloist of St. James Church, sings the lovely "Twilight Dreams"—Sibella, and "Gladness" by Ware. Gail Fairchild Barger, organist, of St. James Church, is the accompanist for the evening.

New Group Meets To Enjoy Music

One of Birmingham's newest groups—it's not a club or organization as yet—consists of a few women who decided to get together twice a month to enjoy instrumental music, played by themselves. Most of the women play the piano, although there is a harpist amongst them and a few violinists.

Mrs. Hovey Hagerman gets a good deal of credit for this group's beginning as does Mrs. C. G. MacDonald and Mrs. R. W. Bampton. They are to meet this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Donald T. Stanton on Mohegan drive.

Other members include Mrs. Edward Laske, Mrs. Myron E. Snyder, Mrs. C. H. Bangs, Mrs. Edgar Bailey, Mrs. Lewis B. Sappington, Mrs. David R. Ballentine, Helen Mayday, Mrs. Elliott S. Kinney, Mrs. Erik Bergishagen, Mrs. Harris Currier, Mrs. William H. Hohmeyer, Mrs. Magor, and Mrs. Mansfield.

Engagement Revealed Of John P. Darval To Mary C. Leonard

Mr. and Mrs. Matthew J. Leonard, of Hendrie boulevard, Huntington Woods announced the engagement of their daughter, Mary Catherine, to John Patrick Darval at a family party in their home on Saturday evening. John is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Darval of Birmingham.

News of the engagement was told on cards attached to small corsages presented to each woman guest. No date has been set for the wedding.

Miss Leonard lived in Australia from 1935 to 1940 and attended the Dominican Convent in Glenelg, South Australia, and an art school in Adelaide, Australia. On her return to the United States, Mrs. Kindley and Mrs. Cobb. It she enrolled at the Meinzinger Art school in Detroit. Mr. Darval is a graduate of Baldwin High School.

Local passenger traffic on public carriers is expected to increase 20 per cent this year over 1941 because of increased employment, construction of new war plants, and the tire shortage.

Pennanen-Payton Vows Exchanged At Home Ceremony

At an informal ceremony in the home of the bride's parents on Saturday morning at a quarter to twelve, Ruth Pennanen and Dr. Charles Payton were united in marriage. The Rev. Hagenen, of Detroit, uncle of the bride, read the services. Ruth is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henrik Pennanen, of Parkside, Detroit, and Dr. Payton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Payton of North Bates street, Birmingham.

For her wedding Ruth wore a suit of beige gabardine and a white orchid at her shoulder. Her sister Martha, maid of honor, also wore a suit, of blue gabardine, and an orchid. Bob Harris was best man for Dr. Payton.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Pennanen chose a dress of rose crepe while the bridegroom's mother was wearing powder blue crepe. Both wore gardenias.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Williams of Hollywood, Calif., brother-in-law and sister of Dr. Payton, and the latter's aunt, Miss Della Letts, of Evansville, Ind.

Following the wedding a breakfast was given for members of the families and later in the afternoon, from 3 until 4 o'clock, a general open house was held. Dr. and Mrs. Payton left for a trip to California before going on to Seattle, Wash., where Dr. Payton will do his interu work.

Nora Alfs Names July 4 Nuptial Date

Announcement of the approaching marriage of Nora Elizabeth Alfs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Alfs, of West Long Lake road, to Kurt Maximillian Herzseld, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Herzseld, of Lyons, N. Y., was made known recently.

The ceremony will take place July 4, at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon at Christ Church Cranbrook with Rev. Otis Berkley, pastor of St. Columbus church, Detroit, officiating.

The reception will be held immediately after the wedding in the home of the bride-elect's parents.

Susan Hartman, of Birmingham, roommate of Miss Alfs at Simmons College, Boston, Mass., this past year, will be maid of honor, while James Hawkes, of Boston, will act as best man. The list of ushers will be announced later.

The bride-elect was graduated from Vaughan High School and attended Simmons College. Mr. Herzseld is a graduate of Harvard and is affiliated with Phi Beta Kappa fraternity.

Mrs. W. H. DeGraff To Attend Luncheon

Mrs. William H. DeGraff, regent of Piety Hill Chapter, D. A. R., will be among the honor guests attending the 46th annual birthday luncheon of the Col. Joshua Howard Chapter, D. A. R., to be held on Saturday, June 13, at the Colony Town Club in Detroit.

The speaker for the afternoon will be Miss Mary E. Sweeney of the Merrill Palmer School.

1922 Baldwin Class Plans Reunion

The Baldwin High School Class of 1922 will hold a reunion of its 20th year on Saturday evening, June 13, at the Community House. A dinner will be followed by a program and a general talkingfest.

Guests of honor will include Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Yost, of Belleville. Mr. Yost was superintendent of schools in 1922. The principal of that year and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Hall, and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Teotharker. Mr. Teotharker was also a teacher in the high school at that time.

Committee members who are making arrangements for the reunion are Mrs. Park Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Russell McBride, Foster Toothacker, and Mrs. Olin Smith. Reservations will be taken up until this evening. Any member of the class wishing to make a reservation should call one of the committee.

Voice Recital Given By Mary Gardner

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Gardner, of Aspen road, presented their daughter Mary in a musical recital in their home on Sunday evening to about 25 of their out-of-town friends who had never heard her sing before. Accompanying Miss Gardner, who sang two groups of songs, was her instructor, Mrs. William Coulter, of Grosse Pointe, who will graduate this June from the Detroit Institute of Musical Art, also played a group of piano numbers. Following the musical a buffet supper was served.

TAXES and the AXIS
THIS is the most costly war of all time and everyone of us might as well recognize the fact that we will be paying for it for years in the form of higher taxes.
Our advice is this: Make taxes part of your budget. There are many reasons why you should provide for taxes in advance—but the best reason is that it's plain common sense. A bank account provides a convenient way to accumulate tax money.
