

PLAYGROUND

sion and strict sanitary conditions for the health and safety of all.

The six play centers—Adams, Barnum, Holy Name, Pierce, Quinlan and Torrey, will open from 9 a. m. to noon, Mondays through Fridays, a varied program of arts and crafts and games.

Special points of emphasis at all play centers will be registration, a general get-acquainted period, croquet, checkers, as well as relay races. Seniors will find equipment and supervision for baseball, volleyball, bowling, and croquet ball, touch ball and shuffle board.

The Recreation Commission is greatly appreciative of the volunteer assistance given by mothers and fathers at the various play centers last year, and announces that again this year parents will be most welcome as volunteers for assistance with general supervision or with any of the crafts or games activities.

Pool Fee
Barnum Pool, with Mrs. Jacqueline Stacker as swimming director, assisted by the play center supervisors and assistants, will again be opened in the swimming pool for children and in the evenings for adults.

Street Dances
Street dances will start Friday evening, June 26, at Baldwin High School, to continue each Friday throughout the eight weeks of the summer program.

CHURCH
The new church is located on a six-acre site on West Maple Avenue. It is placed well back from the road, and is approached by a sweeping circular driveway.

CHURCH
The interior of the church is impressive in its simplicity. Art woodwork is white, including the pews, chancel furnishings, and organ console.

CHURCH
Other dedication festivities will include an Open House and Musical Tea on the afternoon of Thursday, June 25. Family Night for all members of the congregation Friday evening, June 26.

TEACHERS

taken by Miss Mary J. O'Donnell, of Detroit, who attended University High of Ann Arbor, and later the University of Michigan, where she got her B.A. degree in 1941.

Mrs. Hazel Murray, present typing teacher at the school, will take a year's leave of absence to work on her degree. To take her place will be Miss J. J. Jannette A. Wickey, of Detroit, a graduate of Iowa State Teachers College and a native of Chicago.

The new science teacher at the Central Junior High, replacing Eugene Worselle, who went to Detroit, will be Ralph H. Battenhouse, now of Yale High School, formerly of Albion, Michigan.

Miss Virginia Hoerner, R. N., now with the Detroit Department of Health working in the schools, will replace Miss Emma Christensen, whose contract was not renewed.

TREASURER'S REPORT
Treasurer John Harvey Rosso reported $1,022 on hand and estimated deficit of $4,650 when current bills are paid at the end of the fiscal year.

SHIBLER, FOURCRE TO TEACH
Two of Birmingham's administrators, Superintendent L. Shibler and Dr. Maurice Fouracre, principal of Quanton School, will teach during the summer.

FOUR NEW TEXTBOOKS
After long study by teacher committees, four new textbooks were recommended to the Board of Education.

OPEN HOUSE
Theatre lobby and workers have maintained defense stamp and bond booths around town.

New Legstick Conserves Silk

By way of experiment, four Seattle working girls in a large department store have donned the new legstick for hose, a 'legstick' which was patented on so cleverly that no one in the course of a waking day commented on the pointed nose. A hard eyebrow pencil is used to paint on the seams. The girls say it's a real paycheek saver as well as a means for conserving silk.
