Native Crayfish As Good As Shrimp

ESCANABA—Fully as good as the well known shrimp, in the opinion of K. E. Goullier, of the University of Michigan's zoology department, the Michigan crayfish for which the state's only commercial fishery is at Garden.

Reporting to the conservation department's institute for fisheries, Goullier said that the Michigan crayfish for which the state's only commercial fishery is at Garden.

Small wood lath traps baited with pieces of fish are set in water to catch the crayfish. The traps are set in water to catch the crayfish.

Local Youth Designs Cover for 'Liberty'

The cover of the current "Fourth of July" issue of Liberty magazine, designed and designed by Howard W. Whalen, a Birmingham boy now serving with Headquarters, 1st Air Corps, Stewart, Ga., and the color photograph was done by Paul Ruppert of Detroit.

Howard, son of Harvey E. Whalen, 612 East Maple road, after graduation from Baldwin High School, studied under Wayland Gregory at Cranbrook, where he taught ceramics and modeling at the time of his induction was associated with the Paul Ruppert Studio in Detroit.

He is now on the art staff of the Camp Stewart paper "Shoot 'Em Down" and is engaged at present on the magazine for the Recreation Building there. He also designed the costumes and stage settings for his Coast Artillery unit play, "The General's Daughter," which was given an extra request performance in Savannah, Ga.
