

Crowds Attend Opening Services Of New Church

The beautiful new Lutheran Church of the Redeemer was dedicated last Sunday in impressive services. At 10 o'clock the congregation assembled for the opening services in the chapel on Lincoln Avenue.

Arranged by Howard Bell, florist, are presented by many friends as well as organizations of the church. These were particularly beautiful in the evening service because of the special lighting effect which is one of the features of the church.

Your Telephone—worthy of extra care Don't put it on a wall box or a narrow ledge where it can be knocked off. Keep the cord straight and without kinks. Replace the receiver gently and carefully when you've finished a call. In waiting, when repair materials are scarce, your telephone is worthy of extra care.
