Mrs. C. J. O'Connor, Mrs. John E. Moore To Be Co-Chairmen

Members of the Woman's Auxiliary of Christ Church Cranbrook will hold their last meeting until Tuesday, June 9. The meeting will be in the form of a potluck picnic at the home of Mrs. H. H. Haddock of Lowell court. The committee in charge of the meeting consists of Mrs. Grant Wait and Jeanette Nicol.

Mrs. John E. Moore and Mrs. Charles J. O'Connor are general co-chairmen, assisted by Mrs. Charles Richert, Mrs. Frank J. Ortman, Mrs. John C. Fitzpatrick, Mrs. Frank J. McGinnis, Mrs. Claude E. Mosher, Mrs. W. S. Sumner, Jr., Mrs. Ray Cunningham, and Mrs. Edward R. Hayes.

Mary J. McCurry Sets Nuptial Date

Mary Jane McCurry and Harry B. Black have decided on Thursday, June 25, as the date for their wedding, which is, incidentally, the 28th wedding anniversary of Mary Jane's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. McCurry. Harry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Black, of Elizabeth Lake.

The wedding is to take place at the four bridesmaids are, under the direction of Christ Church Cranbrook with the Rev. Warner L. Forsyth officiating. Parties, which started for the bride-elect last week, are continuing apace. Mrs. William J. Martin, of Detroit, gave a dessert-bridge and bathroom shower for her in Detroit last night. Something new and different in the line of showers is being planned for Friday evening by Margaret Scriven, of Pontiac, who has issued invitations for a party-shower—guests will bring any kind of a gift that might be used for entertaining, such as cards etc. Next Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Wallace R. Ivers will compliment Mary Jane at a bridge luncheon and linen shower out at Pine Lake Country Club.

Honoring Mrs. ELEANOR GLOVER, who is moving soon to Lexington, Ky., Mrs. L. N. PYLE will entertain at a tea this afternoon in her home on Euclid avenue. MR. AND MRS. LATTVA W. FOLKERT are planning a dinner party for Mrs. Glover in their home on Baldwin avenue for Saturday evening.

Mrs. Edward Guenther, of 14 Mile road, is in St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital, Pontiac.

WOMEN in SERVICE

Motor Corps Needs More Volunteers

Any woman interested in the Birmingham - Bloomfield Motor Corps are urged to contact the motor corps headquarters in Bloomfield, telephone 2466. More volunteers are needed at this time to fill the local quota. At present members are driving for the blood bank, salvage program, canteen work and the like.

In order to become a member of the motor corps one must have taken the motor mechanics course, standard and advanced first aid, be between the ages of 20 and 50, and be willing to work in an emergency. Further information will be given at the headquarters. The Motor Corps had an opportunity on Memorial Day to give a practical demonstration of its work. Under the direction of Mrs. Hamilton H. Paterson, chairman, three cars of the corps, a convertible and two station wagons, one of which is equipped with two stretchers, appeared in the Memorial Day parade.

During the program at the Cemetery four persons fainted. Members of the motor corps administered first aid, nursed the victims in the car and took them home.

Local Girl Applies for WAAC Officer Work

To our knowledge Lorraine Stanley is the first girl from Birmingham to volunteer as a candidate for officers' training in the new Women's Auxiliary Army Corps. Lorraine, the daughter of Mrs. Alberta A. Stanley and Major Lloyd Stanley, comes from a military minded family. Her father has been in the service for some time and her sister was the first girl from Birmingham to join the United States Army Nurses' Corps. Applications must be in for officers in the WAAC sometime today according to a statement made at the headquarters this week. Women between the ages of 21 and 45 only will be accepted. They must be good health and possess qualities of leadership.

MOMS Club to Discuss Constitution, By-Laws

The MOMS Club will meet this evening at the Community House sharply at 8:15 o'clock. There will be a discussion of the constitution and by-laws, as provided by the parent organization, and further plans for the future will be developed. All mothers of men in any branch of service are urged to attend this meeting.

The Birmingham Club will be hosts at the District MOMS Club luncheon to be held at the Community House, during this month.
