Calls for Reading Of the Scriptures

From Fort Leonard Wood Editor, The Eccentric: Last Thursday a small group from our Battery went on a "problem." I rode in the first truck, over the cat, with an automatic rifle. It was a miserable day, with a strong wind and rain. The wind was very strong when we were at a standstill, but when we were traveling about 40 miles per hour the rain felt like buck shot bouncing off my face!

Longer Hikes

Saturday we went on an eight-mile hike! Our hikes previous to this one had been three or four miles long. We did not have to march 120 steps to the minute, but we had only a 10-minute rest during the hours.

Not Progressing
