Mary E. Staley, F. A. Jennings Wed At Impressive Candlelight Ceremony

At an impressive formal ceremony in Christ Church Cranbrook last Saturday evening, Mary Elizabeth Staley became the bride of Frederick Anderson Jennings, son of Dr. and Mrs. Alpheus F. Jennings, of Grosse Pointe Farms. The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen C. Staley, of Abbey road, was given in marriage by her father, a Juliet cap of rose pointe lace, which Mrs. Jennings wore.

The Rev. Charles H. Cadigan read the services before the altar which was adorned with vases of freshly white snapdragons. White tapers in cathedral candelabra lighted the chancel.

For her marriage, Miss Staley chose a traditional wedding gown of candlelight satin, ornamented with a wide grade of iridescent beads, worn by her aunt, Mrs. B. K. Van Deman at her wedding 50 years ago. She wore a Juliet cap of rose pointe lace, which Mrs. John Garrels, Jr., of Grosse Ile, cousin of the bridegroom, wore at her wedding. The long tulle veil extended beyond the train of her gown. Tradition, so repeated again in the bride's cross of diamonds, which was also worn by Mrs. Allen C. Staley, Jr., at her wedding, a white prayer book ornamented with a single orchid replaced the usual bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Allen C. Staley, Jr., was matron of honor for her sister-in-law and was gowned in woodrose marquisette over taffeta, fashioned with long flowing sleeves, high neckline, and full skirt. A matching Juliet cap of shirred net and a colonial bouquet of spring flowers completed her ensemble.

Dressed exactly like the matron of honor, except in aqua, were the two bridesmaids, Mrs. Grant Barnes and Mrs. William K. Staley.

Richard Hall Jennings was best man for his brother and ushers included Allen C. Staley, Jr., W. B. Staley, John C. Garrels, William Hogan, Grant Barnes, and William Barnes.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Staley chose a gown of powder blue crepe and a corsage of violets. Mrs. Jennings wore a dress of French blue crepe and matching bowers.

A small wedding reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, after which the young couple left on a trip to Boston and New York. For traveling, Mrs. Jennings wore an ensemble.

GUNS and VITAMINS

It Takes BOTH to Win a WAR!!

VITAMINS Ample Here . . . but do they ever reach your family table?

"AN ARMY TRAVELS ON ITS STOMACH"—this is one fundamental that has not been changed in the technique of war. Likewise our civilian defense cooperation can be no better than our physical ability to meet our wartime responsibilities. But all the food planning and careful marketing in the world cannot preserve healthful vitamins unless care is exercised, in the preparation of the food for the table.

THE RIGHT KIND OF FOOD is especially important these days. It can mean the difference between giving your family foods rich in healthful vitamins—and serving meals that have very few vital elements. Vitamin saving is easy with modern gas cooking methods.
