

John G. Mulock and Helen R. Keiser to Exchange Nuptial Vows Saturday

Cranbrook Church Will Be Scene of Wedding Ceremony

It's the element of surprise that makes society news of so much interest these days. Just when people were complacently expecting...

WOMEN in SERVICE

Birmingham Girls Can Be Hostesses

Schedule of Classes and Volunteer Work

Rally-around Birmingham girls for here is another phase of war work you can do and we're sure that you will enjoy it too. U.S.O. headquarters in Detroit say that they can use additional hostesses...

Miss Shirley Busby Inspiration of Parties

A full calendar presents itself to Shirley Busby from now until the day of her marriage. April 3...

About Your Community House Supplying Emergency Aid Is an Important Function

Meager savings go fast when a man with a wife and three children to support is out of work for a few months. In such a plight...

Unger-Taylor Vows to Be Read At 4, Saturday

Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock Clara Ebor Unger will become the bride of John Wotton Taylor at a ceremony performed by the Rev. Warner L. Forsyth in the St. James Episcopal Church.

Nursery School All Set to Go

The Nursery School described in these columns last week, all set up and ready to go. People in charge are at this point just waiting for their charges to put in an appearance.

48 Women Enroll for Nurse's Aide Classes

Monday marked the opening of an intensive study course in Nurse's Aide training which is being sponsored by the local Red Cross chapter.

Red Cross Postpones Regular Fall Roll Call

In an effort to reduce some of the increasing burden during war time, the American Red Cross has decided to postpone its regular fall membership roll call and hold it simultaneously with its next war fund campaign which will be carried in 1943.

New Group Formed to Knit for 'Alphas for Red Cross'

Twenty-two women have been given their assistance of the 'Alphas for Red Cross' group.

Garden Check-Up

Now is the time to check up on the garden to be ready for the blooming season. To fill in the missing plants and complete the border planting call on us for suggestions and plants.

Girl Scouts Attention, Girl Scouts!

Those little girls who are able to give one another a month for their own nature study.

Warrilow-Winfield Nuptial Rites Read

Both Marie Warrilow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Warrilow, of Birmingham, and Robert Winfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Winfield, Valley Road, near the intersection of Sunday evening at the First Baptist Church with the Rev. J. D. Nelson officiating.

GIRL SCOUTS Attention, Girl Scouts!

Those little girls who are able to give one another a month for their own nature study.

Corvell Nursery

BIRMINGHAM - 1375 W. MAPLE AVE. SOUTHFIELD - EVERGREEN and 15 MILE RD. UTOICA - DEQUINDRE and 19 MILE RD. Phone Birmingham 2700

YOUR HOME IS YOUR CASTLE!

Advertisement for Star Carpet Cleaning Co. featuring a woman cleaning a carpet and the company's phone number.

Mrs. Whitlatch's First Aid Class

The first of a series of classes being taught by Mrs. Robert Whitlatch, M. D., will take place on Thursday afternoon after the community meeting at the Community House.

Social Affairs

MRS. JONES E. SHANNON, of Wing Lake left this week for an extended visit in St. Augustine, Fla.

Advertisement for Warrilow-Winfield Nuptial Rites featuring a photograph of the bride and groom.

Advertisement for POND'S Gold Cream featuring a woman's face and a product jar.

Advertisement for Social Affairs with a list of names and events.

Advertisement for Tampon Economy Packets featuring the product packaging.

Advertisement for WILSON DRUG featuring a list of products and prices.

Unroll Tinfoil

Save tinfoil but don't waste it into balls, says the Girl Scouts. They ought to know because they've collected pounds and pounds of the shiny stuff and have helped unroll it for use in various national defense efforts.