

Ensign W. Biggers and Miss Drury To Wed March 23

Announcement was made this week by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rhodes Drury, of Ann Arbor, of the engagement and approaching marriage of the daughter, Virginia, to Ensign William Davis Biggers, of Pensacola, Fla. Ensign Biggers is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Biggers, of Old Salem Court, Bloomfield Hills.

Wedding plans are practically complete, depending mostly on the bridegroom-elect's leave from Pensacola, where he is stationed. If all goes as planned, however, the ceremony will take place on Monday, March 23, in the Methodist Church of Ann Arbor at 7:30 o'clock in the evening, with Dr. Charles Brainerd officiating.

Virginia attended Stephens College and the University of Michigan. At the latter she was a member of Delta Gamma social sorority, Mortar Board honor society, and Alpha Alpha Gamma art sorority. Bill attended the University of Michigan, too, and was affiliated with the Chi Psi fraternity.

The Essence of Dreams Lamps In Extract from Autobiography of An Attitude By GEORGE JEAN NATHAN "One of the most beautiful of all things is a beautiful lamp. Nothing in this world, save it be music, can so soothe and set adream the mood of mortal man. The past and all the present and some of the future are encompassed in its soft persuasive glow. It is the symbol of love, of home, of wistful vagrant fancy, of all the hopes and despairs of one's life on earth. God made the sun, the moon and stars, but man, His child, out of necessity, made for himself the lamp light as a beacon and a haven for the innermost secrets of his heart of hearts."
