Movings of Birmingham Residents Chronicled Here

Movings in and out of Birmingham and Bloomfield these past few months have been accelerated to a great degree by America's war effort. Friends are kept in a constant dither of goodbye parties for first one and then another. But no sooner does a family voice intentions of leaving the city, than there seems to be at least three other families wanting to move in. News comes this week of several well known residents who will soon be gone.

MR. AND MRS. EDWARD T. COOMBS, who are just comfortably located in their new home on Latham drive, will be situated there in Cleveland by the first of June. Mrs. Coombs is going down to Cleveland this week to go house hunting, as is MRS. SPENCER C. STANLEY. The Stanleys, with their daughters, Janet and Anne, were to be all ready to move when school is out. They live on Kentwood avenue.

UNCLE SAM REQUESTS THE PLEASURE OF YOUR ASSISTANCE TO HELP WIN THE WAR

UNCLE SAM hasn't time to send us each an engraved, personal invitation to help win the war. It's up to us to volunteer - to offer our time, our ability and our resources, where they will do the most good. Buy Defense Bonds, of course. But do more than give money. DO something. Several million boys are giving all their time... perhaps their lives. Even that won't be enough unless we all help. And the sooner we get in, the sooner they'll be back. Find where you fit in, then set in.

Smith-Vaughan Wedding Details Revealed this Week

Most exciting and interesting of any wedding news in a long time, the details of the Smith-Vaughan wedding which took place last Friday out at Everett, Wash. Annabell Smith, daughter of Frederick Poole Smith, of Avon Lane, left the previous Saturday for Everett where she was to marry Sgt. Perry Vaughan, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Vaughan, of Vaughan road. Anyway Perry promised to send his family all the wedding details, and his letter came just yesterday. It seemed that Annabell arrived at Everett late Tuesday evening in the midst of a party being given for Perry by members of the platoon of which he is sergeant. From then until the time of the wedding on Friday the young couple was feted at a continuous round of parties—whenever Perry wasn't on duty.

Forever

"BEAUTY" There's something more than just words in the phrase, "A Thing of Beauty is a Joy Forever." It is immensely significant that beauty is so largely responsible for our happiness; and that we react so rationally and favorably to a striking sunset, colorful flowers, or the blending of blues in the sky and lake of a water-scape. In choosing things for our homes, too, it is important to possess things of beauty, that they may truly be "A Joy Forever."
