importance has happened except that which would probably be censured. The matches herein are some picked up around our base and thought maybe you would like to run a notice in your column and give the match collectors in Birmingham one each. I know there are several as I was myself. I was raised in the service and might mention also that Stuart Adams of Birmingham, Bay and Leonard of Lake Orion and myself all came from Gross He base in Ontario, Canada, and would have been weanmen second class. To date we have been advanced to Petty Officers, Aviator, Machinist Mate, third class.

This rate is respectively equal to a sergeant in the Army.

GEORGE S. SCOTT
 Note—The matches are ready to go.

Blood Donors Needed

Would you save a soldier's life? As our forces grow, the need for more blood is increasing. We need you for life-saving plasma. Join the Y. O. R. Blood—will. Sooner, the more you can help. You can do your part right now today. Search for a group. Contact Mrs. John W. Moulton, Blood Unit at the Anne Lathrop School, Southfield road at 13 Mile road, on Saturdays, May 23. We will fall beneath the flag if more donors volunteer. A number of cancellations have made it necessary to bring this to the attention of the public. Please contact Mrs. John W. Moulton, Southfield 3535, or Mrs. Low 4040, 13 Mile road, Southfield 3525, and we will be glad to arrange a time for you. The time is short—the need is great. PLEASE!

Knight or Day
 YOU'LL ENJOY THAT
 AGED-IN, SEALED-IN FLAVOR!

SHELLS and skins are the armor Mother Nature uses to seal protectively her fruits and nuts. We protect Altes beer against outside substances in huge, air-tight vats from which not one bit of Altes' goodness can escape. This exclusive process assures you a wholesome, pure beer, foaming with flavor and chockful of mellowness. Get a glassful of Altes—from keg, can or bottle. Drain it to the bottom. A-aa-ah! You bet it's good! That's a good reason why it will pay you to ask for Altes by name!

Sold everywhere.

Follow these rules for Victory Cooking and help win the war in your kitchen!

EAT NUTRITIONAL FOOD
 Every day, eat this way

HOW TO SAVE FOOD
 Roast meat at low temperature in your Gas oven and reduce oil.

HOW TO SAVE VITAMINS
 Cook vegetables by the "steaming" method for which your Gas range is special.

HOW TO SAVE FUEL
 Do not preheat your Gas oven or broiler before cooking.

TO THE FAMILIES IN THIS COMMUNITY WHO RELY ON GAS FOR COOKING

In these days of national emergency—when meal planning, cooking methods and food economy are so important in keeping America strong—your Gas Company considers it a patriotic privilege to support our Government's National Nutrition Program. Therefore, we urge our customers to choose their fuel nutritive value and to make every possible use of all resources.

By following the Government's advice in the selection of food and by using your Gas range so that you get the best results from your cooking, you can help win this war right in your own kitchen.
