

Max Gail to Wed Betty Scanlon Saturday, June 20

At an open house last Friday evening, Mary Elizabeth Scanlon of Detroit, and Maxwell Trowbridge Gail, formerly of Birmingham, now of Detroit, revealed the news of their engagement and approaching marriage which will be Saturday, June 20. Max is now a chief-pilot officer, U.S.N.R.

A group of the young couple's friends gathered informally at the Gail home on East Kirby avenue, Detroit, last Friday, and each was asked during the course of the evening to entertain in some way. When it came the turn of Betty's father, John F. Scanlon, he calmly announced his daughter's engagement.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Scanlon of Chandler Park drive, Detroit, and Max is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Gail. Max attended Baldwin High School and received his degree from University of Michigan where he was affiliated with Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity. He was graduated from Penn Hall and attended the American Academy of Dramatic Arts in New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Lance Minor and Mrs. Florence McCreary, from Birmingham, attended the party.

Yvonne and Genevieve Gay's Pupils Enact Two Dance Stories in Recital

Two complete dance stories those appearing in two or three make up the dance recital being given this Saturday evening, May 23, at 8 o'clock in Baldwin High School auditorium by pupils of Yvonne and Genevieve Gay. The dances for the evening include Mrs. Maurice Smith, Mrs. E. R. Thom, Mrs. Arthur A. Bell, Mrs. J. A. Bay, of Royal Oak, and Mrs. H. E. Tremper.

Over 100 of the younger students will appear in the first portion of the program, entitled, "Dance, Callendar." Soloists and girls have just decided to become ballerinas. Gayly they lay plans for their future. Several years later the same girls are seen struggling toward their goals, then in the third scene they have all reached a measure of success—all three are married and have young daughters whom they are starting out on a dancing career. The daughters proceed in their studios as did their mothers.

Taking part in this story are Miss Genevieve Gay, Jane Lee Tremper, Pat Day, Anne Gilbert, Denise Williams, Mary Ball, Natalie Seaholm, and Carol Smith. Younger children to be in it are Kitty Bell, Sally J. Edmonds, Mary Jo Meads, Marcia Kelley, Nancy Havermale, and Marie Lang.
