

Lathrup Townsite News

by LILLIAN DIEDERICH

Need Blood Donors
Hostesses for the mobile blood bank project scheduled for the Anne Lathrup School, Saturday, May 23, are Mrs. L. J. Golear, Mrs. Charles Bartholomew, Mrs. J. M. Campbell, Mrs. Howard Stock, Mrs. G. S. Peppiatt, Mrs. John Diederich, Motor Corps, Mrs. Wilfred Thompson, Mrs. L. H. France, Mrs. R. A. Rohm, Nurse, Mrs. D. H. Worden, Catherine Corps, Mrs. T. J. Slayter, Mrs. Kenneth Crow, Mrs. John Freese, Mrs. W. J. Ahlers, Mrs. George Wylie, Mrs. Donald McClellan. Our quota is not quite filled. Anyone who could be a donor but lacks transportation please call Scottfield 3653 and we will arrange it.

William Springer, editor of the New Center News, a weekly publication located on West Grand boulevard, is sponsoring a drive to get the Grand Trunk Railway to supply commuters trains daily to and from Pontiac to the new center district, the area around General Motors. The trains will stop at all convenient outlying districts and unload passengers at the Grand Trunk depot, Baltimore and Cass avenue. To date 700 donors have signed the petition. With gasoline rationing due to hit the middle states July 1, this drive is the support of everyone.

Home Again
Mr. and Mrs. Jay S. Pappert, and daughter Ann, of Saratoga boulevard, returned on Saturday from a three weeks' vacation spent at Remuda Ranch, Ariz., and Coachella Valley, Calif., where they visited relatives on a date ranch. Before returning home they spent a few days in Los Angeles and San Francisco.

Jack L. Rohm, of Buffalo, N. Y., visited his mother, Mrs. A. Rohm, of San Diego, driver, last weekend. Mr. and Mrs. John Paulus, of San Jose, drive, were in a Saturday evening to 14 neighbors. A midnight supper and chum-bum dances were part of the fun.

Bruce Stephenson, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Stephenson, celebrated his sixth birthday, Saturday, with a party for 15 boys and girls.

Enlists
Waide Porter, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Porter, of Dulores avenue, enlisted in the Air Corps, last week. He will be 18 years, in June. His brother Clifford Porter is in the air corps at Hawaii.

Mrs. Eugene N. Himes entertained her Detroit luncheon bridge club, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. France were hosts on Saturday at a dinner held at the Stockholm, after which they attended a party given by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilson, of Lathrup boulevard.

Social Plans
The G. and T. Club has made reservations to attend the annual bridge luncheon given by Lathrup Paganette Women's Club, which will be held at Birmingham Golf Club, June 1. On Decoration Day members of the G. and T. club and their husbands will have dinner at Rosemont Fashions.

Car Leaving Station Strikes Two Youths

Two boys were struck at midnight last Wednesday while crossing Merrill street, near Miles service station.

According to a witness, Harry Rinkoberger, of 2655 E. 7th, a station, going left from Merrill to Woodward. Three boys were walking north and the car struck two of them. They are Dale Roberts, 1347 Smith, and M. J. English, 17, of 2655 E. 7th. Their injuries did not appear of any consequence, it was said. A headlight was broken on the car.

Kingswood Klippings

Tennis Tournament
The first matches of the Michigan State Girls' Open Tennis Tournament were held at Kingswood last Sunday after having been postponed for two days on account of rain. Twenty-one matches were played off, and it is hoped that the finals may be played next weekend. Altogether, there were 64 entries, the largest group ever to participate. Seventeen schools were represented, including Grosse Pointe Country Day, Grosse Pointe Sacred Heart, Grosse Pointe High, Rochester, Ann Arbor, Pontiac, Baldwin, Plymouth, Royal Oak, Bloomfield Hills, and Dominican High Schools, Liggitt, and from Detroit Northern and Cooley High Schools.

Representing Kingswood were the following girls: Orla Galkins, Nancy Jacobs, Mary Adie, Shirley Davidson, Jean Thompson, Martha Novak, Kitty Wallace, Sallie Thornton, Peggy Zedler, Peggy Codd, Mary Lou Stiffler, Sara Woods, Patsy Prowse, and Jessica Waldron.

Barbara Longway headed the committee in charge of balls. Catherine White the hospital committee, and Merrie King the committee of 17 umpires. The finals will be judged by William F. Rorer, who is associated with the Detroit Tennis Club, and William M. Loton of Chicago.

Hear Young Finn
On the evening of Thursday, May 14, Mrs. Eiel Saarinen invited the Kingswood seniors and faculty to a violin recital given by Hans Hattig, a young Finnish violinist. We were thrilled to hear such beautiful music played by so talented a young boy.

On Friday in assembly we were fortunate to have Miss Marguerite, who associate professor of mathematics at Bryn Mawr College, talk to us on the subject of crystals. Mr. Davis and a few of the Cranbrook boys were also invited to hear her.

Monday's assembly presented us with "The Chimney Corner," a short play dealing with the underground activities of loyal Bolshians.

Rest From War

Gen. Douglas MacArthur takes time out from his duties for a short respite, some time before he left for Australia to assume command of United Nations forces.

against Germany during the first World War; as you can imagine, it is of timely interest now. It was directed by Mrs. Cochran and ably acted by Pat Newhall, Barbara White, Bunny Zeman, Pat Kinney, and Peggy Rust. We are looking forward to more plays in the near future.—James.

A Stitch in Time
If a modern girl puts a sewing needle in her hope chest, it probably is going to be her gift to the groom.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Hills School Cops Class D Regionals

By JACK LAUVER
Saturday afternoon at Ypsilanti, the Bloomfield Hills track team took first place in the Class D regional meet. With but three schools present, the final total of points came 61 for Bloomfield, 52 for Fraser and 45 for Waldron.

The winners for Bloomfield Hills were: 100-yard dash, Harold Pickering 1; Fred Booth, 2; 220-yard dash, Fred Booth 3; Bob Scott 4; 440-yard dash, Bob Green 1; Melvin Auten 3; low hurdles, Harold Pickering 1; Norman Clarke 4; high hurdles, Jim Plant 2; Norman Clarke 3; George Duffield 4; pole vault, Leonard Pickering, Art Winfield and a Fraser man in a three way tie for first; shot put, Bob Green 2; Jim Plant 4; broad jump, Harold Pickering 1; Fred Booth 3; high jump, George Duffield and Fraser tied in a three way tie for first place; Dick Craig and Norman Clarke tied for fourth. Vaughan took the relay.

Next Saturday, all those members of the team who took either first or second place in one of the events at Ypsilanti, will go to Lansing to participate in the State Class D track meet.

Replacing Mr. Ollis, who is now a member of the Army Air Corps, Mrs. Gladys Raehrer took up teaching duties at the school at the beginning of this week. Mrs. Robert is a graduate of Hope College in Holland, Mich., and taught school in Farmington before coming to Bloomfield Hills. She will conduct classes in English and economics.

A 16-inch photograph record contains about two ounces of shellac, which is the amount that goes into the manufacture of one military signal flare.

Poppy Revenue Is Kept Separate

Wreaths of V. F. W. Buddy Poppies will be placed on veterans' graves in cemeteries throughout the country as America's annual tribute to its war dead on Memorial Day, May 30.

Of Saturday, May 23, members of Post No. 2645 of this city will conduct their annual sale of Buddy Poppies which gives the general public an opportunity to support a veteran welfare program, inspired by a desire "to honor the dead by helping the living."

Proceeds of the Buddy Poppy sale are kept apart from all other post funds and are used exclusively for welfare activities among men in the active military service and relief work among disabled and needy ex-servicemen.—R. K. Lewis, Buddy Poppy Chairman, Post 2645 V.F.W. of the U. S.

New Citizens Corps To Be Recognized

LANSING—Organization of a Michigan Citizens Service Corps and formal recognition of it and basic requirements for the Michigan Citizens Defense Corps and the Civil Air Patrol are provided for in orders issued this week by Lt. Col. Harold W. Earle, adjutant of the Michigan Council of Defense. The orders are effective June 1, 1942.

The orders also create a Michigan Civilian Defense Auxiliary group composed of nurses, permanent doctors, nurses, members of the clergy, undertakers and others who will be called upon in essential services or duties during the course of a disaster or an air raid.

The Citizens Service Corps gives official recognition to citizens who have completed 20 hours of work in such activities as conservation, War Bond sales, salvage, education, health, counseling services, and others, or to those who have completed certain prescribed training courses in aid of other war activities other than the protective services. They will wear armbands with special insignia.

More Auxiliary Firemen Trained

Another company is receiving auxiliary firemen training, Chief Vernon Griffith has announced. These men, taking a 20-hour course, will be used as replacements to keep the eight other companies up by strength. Chief Griffith announced their names as follows:

W. Johnson, J. Jenkins, E. Dennis, S. Case, R. Deines, F. Harck, J. Grant, W. Marks, and R. Jones.

In addition, to help Bloomfield Village organize a fire protection service, the Birmingham department is providing training for the following men: A. A. Ambrose, G. Gamble, C. W. Higgins, W. C. Scott, H. Beauchamp, R. Gilling, E. Hawkins, W. Wacker, E. T. Sheehan, W. Shepley, J. Slater, R. Thompson, E. S. Reed, and J. A. Brown.

WINS $25 BOND

Rosemary de Beaulieu, a Baldwin student, was awarded a $25 defense bond when she took second place in the oratorical contest at a citizens assembly by the Oakland County Citizens League, held May 17, at Pontiac High School Auditorium.

Some Good Advice
"You always seem so cheerful and happy," said a Salina woman to her maid. "What is your recipe?"
"Simple and easy," was the reply. "When I work, I work hard. When I rest, I rest easy. When I start to worry, go to sleep."—Altoona Tribune.

Damages of $50,000 Sought in Case

Trial was started Monday in Circuit Court, Pontiac, in the case of Theodora Cremer, of Pontiac, against William J. Courtney, 1831 Withrby lane, Birmingham, in which Cremer seeks $50,000 damages. Cremer alleges that on March 1, 1941, he was standing in the center of a parkway in Woodward avenue, at south Pontiac, when struck by Courtney's automobile and severely injured. He is said to have spent 24 days in the hospital.

A circuit judge Archie D. McDonald, of Hastings, is hearing the case.

The speaker from Pontiac placed first, and the one from Ferndale third.

Rosemary was selected from the three Baldwin speakers. The other two were Dick Harrison and Byron Brown.

Try an Eccentric Classified Ad for DEFENSE AGAINST

'S

You must have them Killed to Defend Your Home

Do you realize: This is the beginning of the Muth season. And the Muth, Buffalo Muth and Carpet Beetle are multiplying and causing a great deal of destruction in many homes. Muth infestation is so great that it now exceeds the damage done by fire (per annum) in this state by millions of dollars. Should you discover the pest or any other insect in your home, a telephone call will bring a trained expert to your home, without obligation, to check the method of control.

EDGAR A. MURRAY CO.
PEST CONTROL SERVICE DEPT.

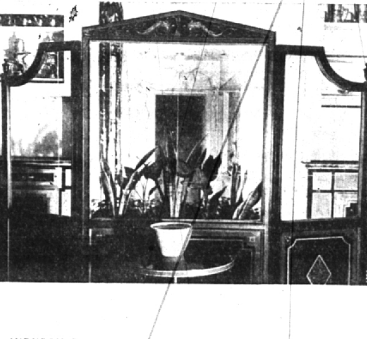

Fitzers 3116 2701 Gribou St., Detroit, Michigan

The Famous Kingsley Inn

In the Heart of BLOOMFIELD HILLS

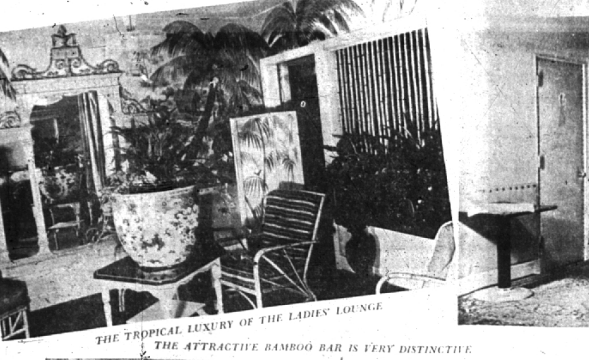

THE MAIN FLOOR DINING ROOM—CHEERFUL AND REFRESHED

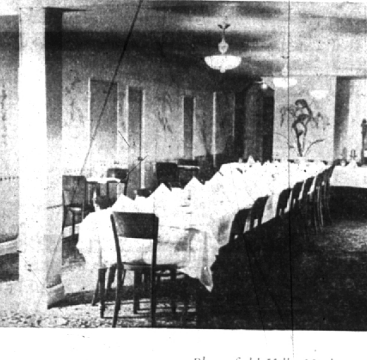

THE SPACIOUS AUDRON BINQUET SALON, OFFERS ADDED SERVICE FOR PARTY GROUPS

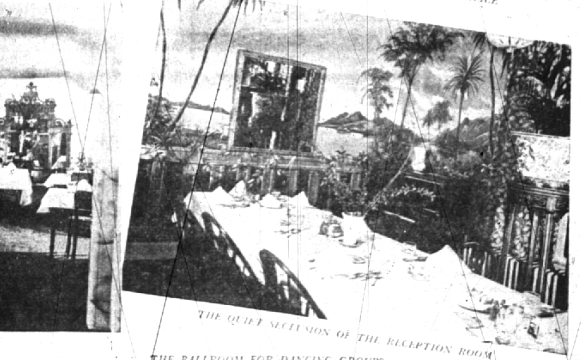

THE MAIN FLOOR BAR OFFERS REFRESHMENT AND THE BEST OF SERVICE

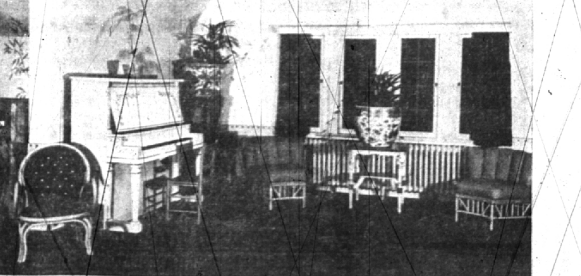

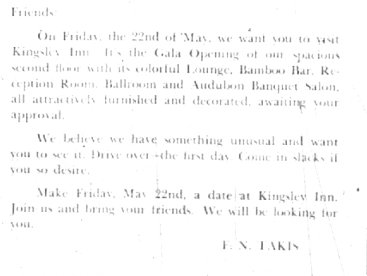

THE TROPICAL LUXURY OF THE LADIES LOUNGE
THE ATTRACTIVE BAMBOO BAR IS VERY DISTINCTIVE

THE QUIET SECTION OF THE RECEPTION ROOM

THE BALLROOM, FOR DANCING GROUPS

Bloomfield Hills, Mich.

Friends

On Friday, the 22nd of May, we want you to visit Kingsley Inn. It's the Gala Opening of our spacious second floor with its colorful Living, Bamboo Bar, Reception Room, Ballroom and Audron Binquet Salon, all attractively furnished and decorated, awaiting your approval.

We believe we have something unusual and want you to see it. Drive over—the first day. Come in—check it out—so desire.

Make Friday, May 22nd, a date at Kingsley Inn. Join us and bring your friends. We will be looking for you.

E. N. TAKIS