William O. Bridge, general chairman of the Detroit Spring Horse Show, to take place at Bloomfield Open Hunt June 12, 13 and 14, will have an all-woman show committee to assist him in the task of putting on Detroit's eighth annual national show. The interesting, though none the less efficient committee is composed of 38 of our best known horsewomen. Alphabetically arranged they are:

Mrs. E. J. Anderson, Mrs. James A. Beresford, Mrs. J. A. Blackwood, Mrs. Charles A. Bray, Mrs. J. D. Candler, Mrs. Charles E. Carey, Mrs. A. A. Clark, Mrs. William Reeves, Mrs. Charles E. Cousins, Mrs. M. D. Douglas, Mrs. R. K. Evans, Mrs. Everett E. Fisher, Mrs. J. W. Fleischer, Mrs. George G. Garner, Mrs. Graham John Graham, Miss Geraldine Higginson, Mrs. Laura B. Higginson, Mrs. James B. Johnson, Jr., Mrs. John C. Lorenzen, Mrs. John L. Lovett, Mrs. William A. McHattie, Mrs. Harold Morris, Miss Ann D. Nichols, Mrs. Elliott S. Nichols, Mrs. Walter D. Briggs, Jr., Mrs. William M. Packer, Mrs. Hamilton H. Paterson, Mrs. Charles Pierce, Mrs. Henry Reichold, Mrs. George Shephard, Mrs. Frank W. Shuell, Mrs. Edgar R. Thom, Mrs. James Vernon, Mrs. Robert F. Waugh, Mrs. R. H. White, Mrs. Percy Williams, Mrs. Alfred G. Wilson and Mrs. Thomas E. Wilson.

The 1942 horse show, incidently, includes a James A. Blackwood, DeForest Clark, A. Clark, M. D. Douglas, Joseph P. Little, John L. Lovett, Elliott S. Nichols, Charles B. Pierce, George Shephard, Frank W. Shuell, Edgar R. Thom, William R. Tracy and E. J. Wilson.

And the Junior Committee, concerned with staging the Junior Show scheduled on the morning of Saturday, June 13, is composed of the following younger ones: Mary Beresford, Sally Booth, Susan Carey, Virginia A. McLaughlin, Charlotte D. Nichols, Betty Paterson, Patricia Shuell and Shirley Wallace.

George J. Gaffner is secretary-treasurer of the Show Committee and the team of Gaffner and Bridge, with the able help of many enthusiastic and energetic members of the all-woman committee, are very busy these May days looking after the thousand or more details involved in putting on a show of the Bloomfield center. Closing date for entries in the various classes is June 4 and many of the boxes already have been reserved.

The horse show, of course, is open to the general public and, as you may have read, the proceeds this year will go to the Army and Navy Recreation League. All of the prize money to be awarded has been underwritten by prominent horsemen so that the proceeds will be as large as possible. Trophies also have been eliminated, the committee deciding to award war bonds instead. As was the case last year, the 1942 Show will be an all-daylight affair.

MR. AND MRS. HENRY HART are going down to Depauw University at Greencastle, Ind., this weekend to see their daughter, VIRGINIA, graduate from the University.
