James Wades to Celebrate 25th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. James Wade, of West Maple avenue, will have the pleasure this Sunday afternoon of celebrating their 25th wedding anniversary with a group of friends, most of whom were guests at the original wedding which was at the Highland Park Presbyterian Church. It is interesting to note here, that the Wade's marriage took place under circumstances similar to those of today. The young couple were married just four months when Mr. Wade was called into a active service—11 months in the United States, and 11 months abroad. Their oldest daughter, Kathleen, was born on the same day that Mr. Wade left this country for service in France.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Stewart, of Imlay City, (Mrs. Stewart was Mrs. Wade's bridesmaid) will be here for the party—which is to be a dinner at 2 o'clock at the Wade's home, and an open house later in the afternoon. Two other important guests will be Mr. and Mrs. James Hardie, of Highland Park, who opened their home for Mr. and Mrs. Wade's wedding reception 25 years ago.

Other guests will include Mr. and Mrs. John Minty, of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Alex Fraser, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Storey, Mr. and Mrs. George Vogan, Mr. and Mrs. James McBride, all of Highland Park, and Mr. and Mrs. William Duguid and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stone, of Northville.

Why Banks Sell U. S. War Bonds Without Compensation or Profit

Do you realize that for the billions of dollars of U. S. War Bonds sold by banks not one cent of compensation has been paid to them? Banks have spent large sums to advertise and sell the Bonds. Yet they receive no fees, no commissions. That is as it should be. That is how the banks want it: Banks place their country's interest first. They do not wish to be paid for rendering a service which every loyal banker deems a patriotic duty and a privilege. We urge you to buy Bonds.
