

Mary J. McCurry, Harry B. Black To Wed in June

On Tuesday evening of this week, Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. McCurry, of Puritan road, announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Mary Jane, to Harry Blain Black, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Black, of Elizabeth Lake. Mary Jane's usual bridge club party became the occasion for the surprise announcement to her many friends. The table centerpiece, two hearts fashioned of white carnations and held together by a silver arrow, bore the names of the young couple.

Plans are being made for a June wedding. Mr. Black is an aviation instructor, training army cadets at the flying school in Ocala, Fla. They will make their home in Ocala.

Does MOTHER Who Keeps the Home Fires Burning?

HER sons and daughters serve America in the armed forces, the factory, in the home and on the farm.
She is a great part of that force behind the fighting force.

It is up to her to keep up morale at home and keep intact the American home.
Truly she is the unsung heroine of this war. Let's not forget her on MOTHER'S DAY this year.
