

Pupils Purchase Over $200 Monthly In War Stamps

By JACK LAUER
The sale of war savings stamps at the Bloomfield Hills School has, during the last months, run well over the par set at the beginning of the year. With the opening of school at the finish of Christmas vacation, a goal of $1,000 was set for the remaining months of the school year, this being approximately $200 per month.

During the month of January, $204 worth of stamps were sold. In February, the sales jumped to $226, continuing upward to $232 in March. April went still higher, finishing with $254. This brings the total so far to $926 and the month of May will bring it well above the $1,000 goal. It is even hoped that the sales might stand at a mark over $1,000 by the end of the semester.

The track team, having had but one meet to date, is now preparing for the regional meet, held at Ypsilanti in the near future. The tennis team likewise has its eye on their regional matches to be held May 23, in Ann Arbor. This year the team will be defenders of the championship of classes C and D and it is hoped that they have the talent to repeat.

Last week the team suffered a shelling at the hands of the Pontiac team at Pontiac, but on the whole it was felt that the playing was the best of the year, though this could not have been seen from the final score. Friday, May 8, they meet Rochester High School in the Bloomfield home courts and it is hoped that they will fare much better at this time than on previous occasions.

The schedule for the remainder of the year is as follows: May 8, Rochester at Bloomfield; May 12, Detroit University School at Bloomfield; May 15, Rochester at Bloomfield; May 23, Regionals at Ann Arbor; June 5, State at Ann Arbor; this last match depending on the outcome of the regional meet.

Mayor Commends Salvage Week

The following statement has been issued by Mayor John E. Martin, urging cooperation in "Salvage for Victory" Week, which starts Saturday and extends through next week:

"I suggest that every Birmingham citizen make a special effort next week to search basements, attic, garage and other storage places for old metal, rubber, paper, rags, and glass, and turn it in in the manner described elsewhere in The Eccentric.

"Salvage is important in the war program, for in our country's gigantic effort to win the war, every bit of material, new and old, can be used to advantage. I commend Salvage Week and I also suggest that these efforts be continued for the months ahead."

Recreation Fund Donors Named

The list of donors to the summer recreation fund includes the M. & C. P. Club, Beta Beta Gamma, Rotary, Rotary Annex, Auxiliary of V. F. W., Baldwin Student Congress, Baldwin Junior High Student Council, A. A. U. W., the D. A. R., and the Adams Junior High Council. The Recreation Commission met Tuesday night and continued its plans for the summer.

Citizenship Class Starts Next Week

To help non-citizens prepare for the regular citizenship examinations, a new citizenship training course will be held Tuesday evenings from 7:30 to 9:30 p. m., beginning Tuesday, May 12. Meetings will be held in room 102 at Baldwin High and the teacher will be Mrs. Hugh McLeese, aided by Mrs. R. P. Cole and Wilson Jenkin. The course will continue for 13 weeks and longer if interest warrants. There will be no cost except for such materials as the group may decide to use.

Non-citizens who may wish to enroll may phone their names to the Community House, or to the teacher at the first meeting.

Too Much Business for One Evening Confronts the Community Council

With representatives of 27 Birmingham organizations present at the annual spring Community Council meeting last Thursday evening, members of the council found that one evening was insufficient to finish all business. At the close of the evening the meeting was adjourned to be called by the council president, Mrs. Earle H. Cunningham.

Mrs. Charles D. McCall, who this winter completed an intensive course in fire prevention and since then, under the auspices of the civilian defense movement, has been lecturing on home fire prevention, talked to the group, explaining that both she and Mrs. William R. Jackson, also a qualified speaker, are available for any club or organization wishing to take the home fire prevention course. This may be taught in three meetings, at one of which the city's movie on bombings would be shown. If the group has seen the movie, one two hour session during one evening.

Mrs. McCall explained that Birmingham was the first city in Michigan to have its groups of auxiliary firemen complete their training. Birmingham has two volunteer fire companies and eight auxiliary companies in the city.

Representatives from all clubs gave reports on what their clubs had accomplished during the past year with emphasis on defense activities, and also to comment on what the council might do to help their particular clubs. The council learned that the Girl Scouts need more leaders, the Lions Club asked to be notified concerning any crippled children, and the complaint was voiced that organization as a whole do not clear their meeting place through the Community House.

Obituary

Burton I. Nichols
Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Bell Funeral Home for Burton I. Nichols, of 2607 1/2 Mile road, Southfield Township. The Rev. Clifton G. Hoffman, of Franklin, officiated, and burial was at White Chapel Cemetery. Mr. Nichols died at his residence on Sunday morning following an illness of two weeks. Born in Ogleburg, N. Y., 57 years ago, Mr. Nichols came to Detroit 32 years ago and moved to Southfield Township in 1930. He was a member of the Eureka Chapter of the Masonic Lodge in Detroit, and at the time of his death was superintendent of the Gallagher Construction Company in Detroit. In 1908 he was married to Harriett Thompson, who survives him.

Other survivors include his two children, Paul I. Nichols, of Southfield Township, and Mrs. James B. Wood, of Franklin, three grandchildren, four sisters and three brothers.

School Children Planning Gardens

A. E. Ebersole, instructor at Barham School, reports more news about students' war gardens.

The enrollments are in; the fertilizer and seeds are in; the children took charge bags of fertilizer and divided it into 2 1/2 pound sacks, many tending to make the task easy. One lesson in the proper method of transplanting has been given.

Mrs. Della Wilson, of Barham, reports that she has had excellent results with the tomato and pepper plants raised in flats in her room, and that there will be more than enough for all the children. One of her seventh grade boys started a special project of his own with tomato plants, and his seed, planted Feb. 1, is now in bloom and he hopes to have fruit formed by the third week in May. The children have shown great interest in the planning and planting of a garden and have had many interesting classroom discussions. Within the next week or two, each school plans to have its own demonstration of garden planting.

Visiting Nurses Cite Mothers' Day

"Sunday is Mothers' Day and Birmingham sponsors of the Visiting Nurse Association believe that it is an opportune time to call attention to the availability of the association for prenatal and post-natal care. Phone the Community House, 2406, for further information."

"The future health of the nation depends on the health of its mothers—the mothers of today who are raising their families, and the prospective mothers of tomorrow," Mrs. C. E. Dalton said.

FRESH FOODS PLENTY
DETROIT—The priorities and the curtailed use of cans for food should present no immediate problem to the local housewives as fresh fruits and vegetables are being made available in steadily increasing quantity and variety, J. F. Greene, division sales director for the A & P Food Stores, declared today.

He announced the inauguration of a nationwide advertising and promotion campaign to feature fresh produce at reasonable cost and in greater quantity.
