Doris Otter Selects Nov. 28 as Date For Her Wedding

Doris Otter and Capt. Robert Lee Graham, Jr., of the Army Air Forces, have set Saturday, Nov. 28, as the date for their wedding—just two days following Thanksgiving. Doris is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Otter, of Bloomfield Hills, and the bridegroom-elect is the son of Mrs. Robert Lee Graham, of Charlotte, N. C.

The ceremony is to take place at 4 o'clock in the afternoon at St. John's Episcopal Church in Washington, D. C., with the Rev. John Gillespie Magee officiating. Phoebe Otter will be her sister's maid of honor, and another sister, Julie will be the bridesmaid.

Following the nuptial service, there will be a reception at the Hotel Carlton, of which the young couple plan to leave for Sea Island, Ga.

Doris and Robert will be honored at a Thanksgiving dinner given by Dr. and Mrs. Alan Walker, in their home at Chevy Chase, and a rehearsal dinner will take place at the Hotel Carlton on Friday, Nov. 27.

The couple will return from their wedding trip to live in Washington, D. C., where Capt. Graham is stationed.

Birmingham Man Wed on Sept. 2

Mr. and Mrs. Matthew J. Leonard, of Hendrie boulevard, Huntington Woods, announce the marriage of their daughter, Mary Catherine, to Pvt. John Patrick Darval, son of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Darval, of Birmingham. The marriage took place at St. Mary's Church in Royal Oak, Sept. 2. Pvt. Darval is at present, stationed at Fort Custer.

Birmingham Musicals to Hear Concert Featuring Mrs. Bampton, Charles Turner

The concert featuring Charles Turner and Lois Thomasson Bampton, will be presented by the Birmingham Musicals at 8:30 o'clock, Monday evening, at the Community House.

Mr. Turner, accompanied by Martha B. King, will play the concert, Song for Lovers by Debussy, and Opus 45, by Grieg.

Mrs. Bampton, mezzo-soprano, will organize the program with a group of four numbers, recommended by William G. Hammond, The Cry of Rachel by Mary D'Amico, Song for Lovers by Debussy, and Arioso from "La Mort de Salome" by H. Bomberg. Gail Bangs will be her accompanist.

Mr. Turner will then play two movements of Wieniawski's Second Concerto in D Minor, Romance and Finale a la Zingara.

The program will be concluded with Mr. Turner's solos, Prælude and Allegro for Keyboard (in the style of Paganini) and Sarasate's Zigeunerweisen (Gypsy Airs).

One Group to Hear Lecture On Mexico

The four departments of the Birmingham Women's Club will hold their meetings on Tuesday, Nov. 17.

The American Home department will have a salad luncheon at the home of Mrs. Lorin L. Ferrall, of Fairfax road. She will be assisted by the luncheon committee composed of Mrs. Amos Gregory, Mrs. H. H. Kendall, and Mrs. Ralph A. Main. The chairman of the day, Mrs. H. E. Tremper, will introduce the speaker, Beatrice Roberts, who will lecture on Mexican Highroads. She will also show pictures taken on a recent trip to Mexico and the Pan American highway.

Mrs. Fenton R. Mathews, on Brown Street, will open her home to the Art department for a sandwich luncheon at one o'clock. Mrs. W. O. Brenkert is chairman of the program which is called Hobby Day. Each member will bring a sample of her hobby and give its history.

The literature department will meet with Mrs. John H. Rosso for a program and tea. The subject, "Women Leaders and Creative Personalities" will be discussed by three members, Mrs. Arthur C. Peck will talk on noted literary women, Mrs. J. P. McCook on women scientists, and Mrs. B. Dow Elwood on women famous in the musical world, and assisting at the tea table will be Mrs. Ford Peabody and Mrs. Luther Heacock.

The Pan American group will meet at the home of Mrs. F. W. Dubois. Their subjects this year deal with outstanding personalities in the various South American countries. Mrs. V. J. Snyder will tell about Jose de San Martin of Argentina. Current events pertaining to South America will be discussed and tea will be served by Mrs. Clyde Coons and Miss Mary Unger.

2 Pontiac Chorus To Join in Concert

The music patrons of Pontiac's two choruses, the Pontiac Women's Chorus and the MacDowell Chorus, will suggest an organization to give a joint concert by these two choirs. Monday evening, Nov. 16, the Pontiac Women's Chorus, for the first time, present a joint program of music at 8:15 o'clock at the Pontiac High School.

Verne B. Kellett of Cranbrook, is director of the women's choir, and Frederick A. Protheroe, of Birmingham, will direct the male chorus. Louis Johnson Chapman, well known soloist at Christ Church in Cranbrook, will sing a solo and obligato in one of the choruses with the women's choir.

The clubs will combine in two mixed numbers. Mr. Kellett will direct, Palestrina's Adoremus Te, and Mr. Protheroe will lead the choir in Gounod's "Bye Baby's Good Night." Dorothy McKibben and Oscar W. Schmidt will preside at the piano for the clubs.

Farm and Garden Club Hears Talks And Sees Movies at Meeting Monday

The Birmingham Branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association met Monday at the Community House.

Mrs. F. H. McKinney gave a very interesting talk on "Ideas for Tablecloths," describing tables set with dishes ranging from gingham and seersucker to sheer marquisette, the accompanying dishes and centerpieces. Mrs. McKinney said that the trend is away from the conventional linen and damask, although these are still considered classic.

Elbridge G. Newhall showed colored slides of the victory demonstration garden, giving all present an inspiration for next year's gardening. The slides demonstrated how a complete and attractive garden can be made with much work and gardening skill. The women who worked so steadfastly all spring and summer deserve praise for their very successful efforts. He also showed pictures of Birmingham, Cranbrook, and Ann Arbor in which the autumn coloring was breathtakingly beautiful.

Mrs. Newton C. Barnes spoke on Thanksgiving and Christmas arrangements, demonstrating the classic beauty and the spirit of abundance that can be expressed in arrangements of autumn vegetables, fruits and gourds. Her ideas were very stimulating and original but she urged her audience to follow its own intuition and ingenuity.

Following the meeting tea was served, with Mrs. Atwood B. Outman and Mrs. Harvey B. Greene pouring. Mrs. Harold E. Chapel arranged the attractive tea table. On a brown net cloth, a Swedish console set centered the table. The bowl held an artistic arrangement of autumn leaves and fruits.

Mrs. Hiram Perry Holmes was general chairman, and assisting her were Mrs. Everett H. Weik, Mrs. E. W. Brohm, and Mrs. George Stone.

These Meats Are Unrationed

Until Jan. 1, when meat rationing goes into effect, U. S. citizens have been asked to limit consumption of steaks and pork chops to 2½ pounds a week. On these trays are meats that are unrationed on the voluntary curtailment. Let's do right: Call liver, beef tongue, beef heart, sweetbreads, calf brains, pork kidneys, veal kidney. Rear: bacon square and chicken.
