

FOUR SCORE AND THREE

FOOD MERCHANT TO THE NATION FOR 83 YEARS

Celebrating our 83RD
ANNIVERSARY

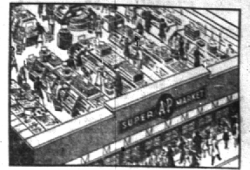

1859

"To sell nothing but fine foods... and to sell them at the lowest possible price." This has been A&P's credo for 83 years, ever since this principle was laid down by A&P's Founder in the first store in 1859

Thousands of customers are profiting every day by A&P's 83 years of food retailing experience gained over a span of more than four score years of peace, and four major wars. Every marketing efficiency learned since 1859 has helped establish A&P's reputation for thrift. Producers, growers, and packers, recognize A&P's insistence on fine quality, and every short cut to economy has been weighed, tested, and used. It's A&P's 83d Anniversary and each year has meant further business efficiencies—more elimination of handling costs and narrowing the margin between what the consumer pays and the producer receives. Now, more than ever, A&P is geared to such wartime efficiency, government cooperation and consequent consumer benefits. Come in today. See for yourself.

1942

After 83 years... A&P Super Markets, now the nation's leading Food Department Stores, still operate on the principle of "to sell nothing but fine foods... and to sell them at the lowest possible price."
