Corp. R. Freeman Wed Tuesday Eve

A Florentine gold locket, gift of the bridegroom's parents, was worn by Miss Beverly Jeanne De Remer when she became the bride of Corp. Robert E. Freeman, of the U. S. Marines, Tuesday evening. The couple was united by the Rev. William Gelston at the Protestant Church of Highland Park. Miss DeRemer is the daughter of Mrs. Marjorie DeRemer, of Highland Park, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew J. Cammerer, of South Adams road.

For her wedding, the bride chose an ensemble of powder blue crepe and a shimmering corsage of white orchids. Mrs. Ernest Berthlett, of Monroe, was her sister's only attendant, and she wore brown accessories with dress of turquoise crepe. Her flowers were Avon, Ward roses. Mr. Cammerer was his son's best man, and seating the guests was Lloyd McQuar, of Birmingham.

Mrs. DeRemer wore a black crepe dress accented with accessories of fuchsia and a gardenia corsage. The bridegroom's mother chose a dress of black velvet with turquoise trim and a corsage of fall-scented roses.

The bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Cammerer, held openhouse for 150 guests, honoring the newlyweds, Wednesday evening. The house was decorated throughout with red roses and the lace-covered table was centered with baby mane for the buffet supper.

The newlyweds will make their home in Portsmouth, Va., where Corp. Freeman is stationed in the Marine Sea School.
