Mrs. Ormond Heads County War Clubs

The Oakland County Civilian Defense Council has announced the appointment of Mrs. John K. Ormond, of Waddington road, as chairman of Oakland County war clubs.

These war clubs are in addition to the defense councils that aid physical protection from air raids. The purpose of this is to form neighborhood clubs under a county chairman to keep in touch with the individual to enlist his complete cooperation and to educate him to the awareness of his responsibility in the war effort.

"Although the clubs are only beginning to form here in Oakland County, the plan is expected to be organized throughout the nation," Mrs. Ormond said yesterday. She expects to begin her activities after the first of next month.

In Birmingham, Mrs. Ormond organized a consumer committee.

FIRST AID CLASSES
Dr. John L. Lundberg will conduct the advance first aid course at the Community House on Monday nights. Last Monday night was the first class.

Printing of the country's new all-purpose ration books will take 87,000 pounds of ink, 7,500 pounds of paste, half a million pounds of boxing.
