

Margaret Alice Bull Becomes Bride of Ensign Robert Hicks Wednesday

Weds Navy Officer In Ceremony Held At Detroit Church

St. Paul's Memorial Church of Detroit was the scene of the wedding of Margaret Alice Bull, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Bull, of Linden road, and Ensign Robert W. Hicks, son of Robert and Mrs. Hicks, of Brazill, Ind. The service was read at 4:30 o'clock.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore an afternoon frock of service blue crepe accented by a fuchsia hat and matching fascias gloves. Her train was purple orchids.

Marjorie Bull, as her sister's only attendant, was dressed in Fuchsia crepe with accessories of black and she wore a green orchid. Marjorie came home from Mt. Carroll, Ill., where she is a student at Frances Shimer Junior College, to take part in the wedding.

Arthur Bull, brother of the bride was best man. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Bull chose a dress of mauve crepe with a hat of green and a corsage of yellow and bronze chrysantheums. A reception followed the service at the home of the bride's parents on Linden road.
