

Magician-Ventriloquist Show To Be Important Part Of Pierce School Fair

Wednesday, Oct. 7, To Be Set Aside For Annual Event

The long-awaited Pierce School "Fair" will be held on Wednesday, Oct. 7. At 4:30 p. m. the various booths will be opened for business. Some attractions will be the "Country Store," well-stocked with jams, jellies, vegetables, etc. hand-made aprons, pillowcases, dressed dolls, "White Elephants," plants and cut flowers.

"Fish pond," "cardy" and "book store" (featuring comic books) will no doubt be first on the list with the children. A slight meal will be served, especially at the "Snack Bar" and should prove popular with those who wish to stay through the afternoon and evening.

Starting at 8:15 p. m. the "entertainers" will produce a variety of entertaining and exciting acts in the auditorium. Harold Steiner is a professional singer, ventriloquist and acrobat. He has some of the best puppets in the country with which to entertain his audience. Gloria Stodding, his wife, is an expert "shadow-cutter" and will contribute this unique feature to the program. A large city crowd is expected to enjoy these many features as "The Steinhugs" are expected to have received wherever they put on their production.

At this time, Mrs. Bennett, general chairman for the fair, announced the chairman of booths: Mrs. Donald Mitchell, Inspiring; Mrs. Olga Evers, country store; Mrs. J. C. Gresh, snack bar; Mrs. Charles Cochran, aprons; Mrs. Charles Jones, pillowcases; Mrs. M. Clark, dolls; Mrs. Wm. Dove, fritostites; Mrs. P. M. Roberts, candy; Mrs. Ray West, plants; Mrs. A. Wingerdell, cut flowers; Mrs. Geo. Erickson, white elephant; Mrs. H. Wood, dressed dolls; J. Sprangan and A. Bennett, entertainment; and Mrs. H. Taylor, tickets.

2 from Birmingham Attend Annual Rally Of Public Accountants

CHICAGO—Two residents of Birmingham are among the prominent figures at the 26th annual meeting of the American Institute of Accountants, national professional society of certified public accountants, now in session at the Palmer House here.

One of the Birmingham men is Ernest H. Fleicher, Detroit certified public accountant, who is a nominee for reelection to the council or governing body of the American Institute. His name will come before the members of the organization for election Thursday morning.

James H. Barrett, assistant secretary and assistant controller of the Murray Corporation of Detroit, is the other resident of Birmingham attending the accountants' sessions. He spoke Tuesday morning at a session on technical accounting problems arising from the war. His subject was "Plant Accounting for Government-owned Property."

Village Variety

Birmingham really rallied for the Village Fair this past weekend, with one of the more popular exhibits being the baked goods display. Looking over the assortment, we were reminded of a story heard recently about a similar sale sponsored by Holy Name Church. One young husband in the parish heard so much about the coming event that he, too, decided to do his bit. A few hours later he emerged, victorious, from a slightly soiled kitchen. It was, as he put it, "not exactly an angel food, but a big white cake anyway," and it proved most successful at the sale. Our cake baker prefers to remain unknown in order to avoid orders, however, we're keeping him in mind for future reference.

A. S. McKee has having, as guests the weekend Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Thomas of St. Louis, Mo., and are giving a dinner party for the 100th anniversary of the birth of the late President, Sept. 19, at Grace Hospital, Detroit. The baby's mother is the former Jane Underhill of Buffalo, N. Y., and her grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Mosher, Sr., of Bloomfield.

Another set of proud parents are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Booth Wallace whose daughter, Christine Ann Booth, was born Tuesday morning, Sept. 29, at Harper Hospital, Detroit. Mrs. Wallace was Mary Ann Booth before her marriage, and the young lady's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Wood and Mrs. Grace Booth Wallace.

This really is the week for babies! Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Jr. are now receiving congratulations on the birth of their daughter to be called Lynn Ivers, who was born early Tuesday morning, Sept. 29. Mrs. Ivers is the former Louise Cole, of Birmingham, and her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Gardner M. Cole.
